I think they should look a little bit more at the details instead of just shutting down the case. In my case

I was psychologically, emotionally and financially abused. They kept me waiting for 8 hours for 2 whole days to talk to an attorney that I was promised would call me in an hour and when I changed my mind that I didn't want to be with their firm anymore they gave me a complete run-around about my refund, when they said they would give it to me and that's why for months I made the report to the Texas Board in the first place.

I FEEL IT IS UNFAIR BECAUSE MY ATTORNEY WAS DECEPTIVE AND LIED AND HID THINGS FROM ME. SO HOW CAN THAT BE FAIR? A WILL WAS PROBATED IN TEXAS THAT SHOULD HAVE BEEN PROBATED IN FLORIDA HOW WOULD I KNOW A WILL IS PROBATED IN A SMALL COUNTY WHERE THE DECEASED DID NOT LIVE? IT SEEMS VERY UNETHICAL TO ME AND FOR NO ONE TO DO ANYTHING ABOUT IT IS SO WRONG. HE LIED TO A JUDGE ABOUT MY WHEREABOUTS HOW WOULD I POSSIBLY KNOW ABOUT THIS
- 14. Do you have any suggestions for improving the grievance system?
That fraud and concealment is what happened then why would i get an email stating about the statute of limitations, I do not understand that, my understanding is once fraud and concealment are found out about it you are suppose to report it which i did. So how is that fair something defiantly needs to be in place for the victims that are deceived by someone who is an Attorney and you are led to believe them, how is someone to get justice not believe what there attorney says and hire a bunch of attorneys to make sure they are telling you the truth, that makes no sense to me. So now I am out of a legacy left by my grandfather for generations after me because of lies and cover ups and now I am told statute of limitations.
