Good afternoon, Clair:

Thanks for the guidance. I was wondering who gets this. I have been trying to fax it to 1-152-427-4169, but I get no answer. Has the main fax number changed?

If e-mail is acceptable, that actually helps a great deal. I am attaching hereto a coversheet with the brief and a couple of exhibits that I am not sure you received in a clean fashion earlier. Due to time constraints when this grievance first began, I sent some documents and exhibits as "links" or URLs in articles or downloads. I dislike doing things that way, but until you retire, you never fully appreciate an office full of highly efficient helpers.

I hope sending this material this way is acceptable. If not, please let me know.

Thank you for your kindness and invaluable assistance in this matter.

Dear Ms. Mock;

Thank you for your efforts in this matter. As I told your investigator, Jeff, on the phone Friday, I will be filing a short additional "Brief" today designed to draw your attention to key exhibits previously filed as part of the supplements that were apparently never considered by the original "classification" reviewer. I believe they are dispositive of the classification question. You will have my supplemental filing before close of business today.

Subject: Grievance filed by Mr. Stone

Dear Ms. McKeeman:

Pursuant to your inquiry, our office reviewed our file to ascertain whether we provided BODA with everything submitted by Mr. Stone. Unfortunately, it appears that we did not provide BODA with the four supplemental filings from Mr. Stone. In addition, in conducting our review, we learned that due to an error in our database, the classification attorney was not provided with the opportunity to review those supplemental filings. Our normal procedure is to flag the grievance and any supplemental filings in our database as something to be reviewed by the classification attorney. However, we mistakenly did not flag the four supplemental filings, so the classification attorney was unaware of their existence. Since the classification attorney didn't review the supplemental filings, they were not marked as documents to be provided to BODA.

We apologize for this error. We of course always strive to give every grievance the utmost consideration, but it appears that did not happen in this case. As a result, we believe the best option is to re-open Mr. Stone's grievance and have the classification attorney review it, along with the four supplemental filings, before making a classification determination. In other words, we would re-start the classification process from the beginning.

We have included Mr. Stone in this correspondence so that he is aware that we plan to re-open his grievance. Again, we apologize to both you and Mr. Stone for this error.

Dear Ms. Beckage,

I have received your letter dated November 21, 2014, in which you state without explanation that the information "alleged" in my initial complaint did not demonstrate professional misconduct on the part of Mr. Harrison. I would like to extend this opportunity to you to explain your decision. Obviously, my initial complaint did, indeed, allege ample facts that if taken as true clearly demonstrate reprehensible lawyer misconduct on his part, and I specified for you the precise disciplinary rules and oath provisions his conduct violated. At your level, you are obligated to take "as true" all of the allegations of fact in my complaint. It does not appear that you did so.

Mr. Harrison "weaponized" his law license to attack American citizens solely because they tried to exercise their most vital constitutionally protected rights. There never was any legitimate purpose for his abuse of the discovery process against disinterested third parties. All of the facts support that conclusion – and no other. I alleged specific facts sufficient to demonstrate that Mr. Harrison actually engaged in "criminal" misconduct¹, let alone unethical and immoral misconduct. I spelled out for you a dozen disciplinary rules that an attorney violates when he uses his law license to terrorize, intimidate and punish American citizens for speaking out in protest of abhorrent government abuse.

On behalf of the Texas State Bar you have embraced and approved his outrageous misconduct. If you believe I have misstated any aspect of this situation, kindly show me the professional courtesy of explaining where I am wrong. I look forward to your response.

Re: Complaint No. 201406665

Dear Mr. Stone:

Your recent letters addressed to Sue Beckage regarding Geoffrey Lloyd Harrison were forwarded to me. I understand that you are inquiring as to the reason for dismissal of your grievance, and I appreciate your concerns.

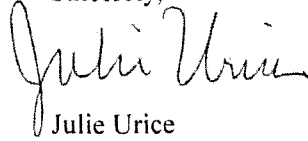

The rules of discovery in Texas are broadly designed and construed to enable litigants to obtain the fullest knowledge of all pertinent facts and issues prior to trial. Because of the breadth by which the rules operate to allow full discovery by parties, we cannot determine, on the basis of the documentation submitted, that there was no legitimate basis for the subpoena at issue. Consequently, we determined that the allegations set forth in your grievance did not demonstrate professional misconduct.

I would also like to inform you that our file contains the documents specified in your December 3 letter with the following exceptions:

- (1) Petition for Writ of Mandamus, dated 8/26/2014
- (2) Response to Petition for Writ of Mandamus, dated 10/20/2014
- (3) Reply to Petition for Writ of Mandamus, dated 11/11/2014

Please be reminded that you have thirty days from receipt of our November 21 notice of dismissal to submit your appeal to the Board of Disciplinary Appeals or twenty days to amend and refile your grievance with additional information.

Sincerely,

Dear Julie,

Thank you for your email explaining the reason my complaint was dismissed. That sort of information should be included in the initial dismissal notice letter as a matter of routine. The extra effort need to extend that courtesy to everyone who takes the time and effort to report lawyer misconduct seems minimal based on your letter as an example.

I have one additional, but very brief procedural question for you. Would you kindly confirm for me that I have the current version of Section 2.10 of the Texas Rules for Disciplinary Procedure? The latest copy I was able to find online claims to include amendments through 2012, but it describes an appellate procedure substantially different from the procedure both you and Ms. Beckage communicated to me in response to my complaint.

2.10. Classification of Inquiries and Complaints:

The Chief Disciplinary Counsel shall within thirty days examine each Grievance received to determine whether it constitutes an Inquiry or a Complaint. If the Grievance is determined to constitute an Inquiry, the Chief Disciplinary Counsel shall notify the Complainant and Respondent of the dismissal. The Complainant may, within thirty days from notification of the dismissal, appeal the determination to the Board of Disciplinary Appeals. If the Board of Disciplinary Appeals affirms the classification as an Inquiry, the Complainant will be so notified and may within twenty days amend the Grievance one time only by providing new or additional evidence. The Complainant may appeal a decision by the Chief Disciplinary Counsel to dismiss the amended Complaint as an Inquiry to the Board of Disciplinary Appeals. No further amendments or appeals will be accepted...." TEXAS RULES OF DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURE (Including Amendments Effective October 1, 2012).

If this provision has been revised, would you kindly send me the updated text or a link I can use to download the latest version? Also, would you please make a note that my preferred "retirement" email address is:

JStone@Stonemoseley.com.

Thank you for your courtesy and cooperation.

Dear Chris:

I have just reviewed all of the 228 pages of documents you stated were reviewed by BODA when it considered my appeal. There is a serious problem! Those documents do not constitute the entire record presented to the CDC - in fact there are three "Supplements" that were filed with CDC as part of the underlying Complaint Form. One supplement was extremely critical because it contained a copy of the 16 page subpoena which is at the heart of the grievance and without which no one could make a proper assessment of the grievance.

By the way, I specifically sent an email to CDC December 2, 2014 listing all of the documents I had submitted (including all the supplements). They responded with an email confirming that CDC had received the supplements and had all but three of the documents listed.

In addition, there were several written communications between the CDC and me - one of which was extremely important because it contained an explanation of the CDC's erroneous reasoning behind the improper classification of my grievance.

WHAT DO WE DO NOW?

Is it necessary for me to file a mandamus and a TRO?

Your letter stated the BODA closed the case - in light of this discovery - can the BOD assume jurisdiction and reopen the matter for a full consideration of all material that was before the CDC?

Stone

p.s. I just spoke to Ms. Gail Vickers and explained this problem - I am waiting for your decision. Thank you.

Dear Mr. Stone,

BODA considered your appeal 55523 en banc on January 29, 2015. Marvin Jones and Bob Black were recused. Ray Echevarria and George Taylor were not sitting. "All BODA deliberations are confidential and shall not be disclosed by BODA members or staff." BODA Internal Procedural Rule 2.02(a). "Determinations by the Board of Disciplinary Appeals that a statement constitutes an Inquiry . . . are conclusive, and may not be appealed to the Supreme Court." TRDP 7.11.

The Board considered the attached 228 pages forwarded to us by the CDC which they considered when screening the grievance. "BODA shall review only the original grievance on appeals from classification decisions. The CDC shall forward a copy of the complete grievance to BODA with supporting documentation as originally filed. BODA shall not consider any supplemental information which was not reviewed as part of the original screening and classification decision." BODA IPR 3.02.

Dear Ms. McKeeman;

First, thank you for the information. Of course I had already read that particular rule, and that's why I also asked Bob Black if he knew whether or not such a "final" ruling was appealable to the Texas Supreme Court. If you know the answer to that question, I would appreciate you sharing the information with me. After all, as colleagues and fellow members of the Texas State Bar, we're all on the same team, aren't we?

Second, as you know, you recently sent me correspondence advising me that BODA has affirmed the CDC's "Inquiry" classification of my grievance against Geoffrey Harrison; 201406665; BODA Case #55523. No real explanation was provided other than the standard conclusion that somehow my complain failed to allege any "professional misconduct" on the part of Mr. Harrison. You can imagine how disappointing and unhelpful such a conclusory statement is, especially considering the fact that I expressly identified at least a dozen DRs - by number - and explained how the conduct I alleged violated each one of those rules.

I believe the stated scope of the CDC and BODA's statutory duties includes protecting and serving the Texas public, and I believe further that the uninformative, conclusory explanation I received from BODA falls far short of anyone's reasonable expectation under those goals. So, if it is not too much trouble, would you be so kind as to explain the legal reasoning that went into the BODA's "conclusion" that all of my rather comprehensive allegations and analysis somehow led three BODA panel member to reach the exact same conclusion as the CDC, including using the exact same uninformative, conclusory wording.

I have to admit, dozens of people (including some pretty smart lawyers) have read my complaint, and every one of them had no problem in reaching the conclusion that I clearly alleged "professional misconduct" against Mr. Harrison. Now, of course, all of them understood that the Texas Rules of Disciplinary Procedure (TRDP) required both CDC and BODA to take all of my fact allegation as "true" at this threshold level of the grievance process. When you look at my complaint that way, we're all having such trouble understanding how anyone trying to do a good job and follow the rules, could possibly conclude that I failed to meet my threshold burden under the TRDP. In point of fact, it looks like we just jumped over the "classification" phase of the grievance process and leaped all the way to the "just cause determination" phase - without bothering with all of that pesky, troublesome "investigation" called for by the rules - you know, with getting a response from Mr. Harrison in which he could try to prove he really had a "substantial purpose" for attacking the clergymen; and also all of that other stuff, like having investigators interview witnesses and take sworn statements, etc. I can see how just substituting wholly unsupported "surmise" about Mr. Harrison's subjective motives, and calling on a distorted understanding of the rules for discovery actually saved lots of time and effort - but it just doesn't seem to square with the requirements of your own written rules and the law.

Obviously, I must be missing something, or just maybe somehow the folks at your end have overlooked something. By the way, you might recall that your boss expressly prohibited me from offering you a brief along with my appeal. He cited a rule that he claimed prevented me from offering that help to the BODA - a rule I observed for him, when read properly, did not really prohibit me from filing such a brief which would have been an aid for BODA in its understanding of the procedural errors of law made by the CDC. I can only think in retrospect, that such a brief just might have been helpful to BODA in avoiding the same fundamental mistakes of law made by the CDC. It just seems to be common sense that more open communication and less "hide-the-ball" would go a long way in resolving this sort of unproductive activity. That assume, of course, that everyone is truly trying to get at the truth and make the correct decision - and not just trying to whitewash over the glaring misconduct of a well-to-do, downtown, Houston lawyer.

Third, please consider this as a formal request for the names of the BODA panel members who participated in the review of my complaint against Geoffrey Harrison. I would also like a written list confirming the precise documents that BODA had before it during the review of my complaint.

Forth, the letter you sent to me informing me of BODA's decision affirming the CDC's "Inquiry" classification stated that the case was closed; implying that I had no further right to pursue my complaint under the TRDP.

The CDC likewise routinely publishes inaccurate, incomplete and misleading information regarding a complainant's rights under your rules. Would you kindly tell me why BODA fails to advise complainants that they still have additional, time critical, valuable procedural rights in regard to re-filing an amended grievance with the CDC following an adverse ruling by BODA? I'm sure you are aware that the rules provide a 20 day window within which a claimant, such as me, can re-file with the CDC. Fortunately, as a lawyer I am trained to read and understand complex rules like the TRDP, but I suspect many of the lay-persons who file complaints might be confused by the sort of letter you sent me, and I'm sure you don't want that to happen. If this inaccuracy was just an oversight, perhaps this letter will assist you in correcting the problem so future complainants will receive complete and accurate information from BODA. If so, I'm glad I could help.

As always, thank you for your courtesy and cooperation in this matter.

Best regards,

Good morning, Mr. Stone.

I understand you have asked about appeals from dismissals by Summary Disposition panels. Texas Rule of Disciplinary Procedure 2.13 provides, in part:

"There is no appeal from a determination by the Summary Disposition Panel that the Complaint should be dismissed or should proceed."

So, all SD Panel decisions are final.

Subject: Re 201406665 BODA 55523 Stone v. Harrison

Dear Gail,

As we discussed yesterday, you have stated your appeal file contained only 228 pages of documents. That means the only documents you received were those attached directly to the original complaint filed on November 4, 2014.

Again, as I told you yesterday, I have confirmed fax receipts showing that the Office of the Chief Disciplinary Counsel (CDC), received three supplemental filings submitted by me containing nearly a hundred pages of additional, critical documents in support of the allegations against Mr. Harrison - most important of which was an exemplar of the offending subpoenas served on the Houston Clergymen demanding, inter alia, their Sermons, Holy scripture, and pastor-parishioner communications, etc. These supplements were transmitted to and received by CDC between November 7, 2014 and November 9, 2014 at fax no.512-427-4169. If you had provided your fax number in your signature block, I would have gladly sent you this documentation.

Moreover, on December 2, 2014, I specifically sent a letter to S. M. Beckage at the CDC in which I listed each and every document I had submitted in connection with my grievance. I asked her to confirm that CDC had all of those documents. On December 11, 2014, I received a response letter from Ms. Julie Urice in which she expressly confirmed that every one of those documents had been received by the CDC (with the exception of three inconsequential mandamus filings with the Texas Supreme Court). The purpose of that exchange of letters was to ensure you received all of the pertinent documents as part of the appeal. Quite obviously, you did not!

With all due respect, you have to admit I did everything humanly possible to ensure nothing fell through the crack This is not my problem. I filed the documents properly! I went out of my way to confirm that the documents were in the file! I was instructed not to send any additional documents myself to BODA! I followed up with BODA after receiving notice of dismissal to ensure you had all the documents! I discovered you did not - and now you tell me it is my problem! This constitutes a denial of due process. I'm am entitled to an appeal - even if it is in secret. I can't have received an appropriate appeal if you were denied the complete record. At a minimum, due process requires that an agency follow its own rules.

What needs to happen, is BODA needs to re-open this matter...examine my documentary evidence proving that the CDC had more documents than you were provided - get the "complete" record from the CDC, and then re-submit the matter to a BODA panel for a proper appeal.

I'm sure you are aware that Chief Justice Hecht has recently received a Petition for Administrative Review filed by a Dallas lawyer named Marc Stanley, in which he describes receiving much of the same short-sheet treatment I have received from CDC and BODA. This new problem will not help that situation. Kindly, take time to investigate this matter further. I will gladly send you the exchange of letters confirming that CDC had far more documents than the limited number they sent to BODA. Please contact me as soon as possible. There are critical time limits involved.

Thank you for your courtesy and cooperation,

Dear Mr. Stone:

It appears that the grievance in the SBOT file is the same as the grievance that was filed with your appeal. You may want to check with the SBOT to confirm this. If you have new information that was not considered previously, you may refile your complaint one time only.

Re: Complaint No. 201406665
John D, Stone – Geoffrey Lloyd Harrison

Ladies;

This week I discovered a serious problem with my grievance against Mr. Harrison. I am hoping that one of you can give me a straight answer about the source of the problem.

BODA sent me a copy of all the documents they claim you provided to them as part of the appeal file. There were only 228 pages. That is not enough!

Those 228 pages represent just one (1) of the ten (10) exhibits I submitted to you as part of my grievance. Where are the rest of the documents? None of those documents made it to BODA. Why not?

More than 100 additional pages of documents were submitted to you as part of my grievance between November 9th and November 11th, 2014. They were attached to three “Supplements” I filed during that timeframe. They were sent as usual to Fax No. 1-512-427-4169. What did you do with them?

On December 2, 2014, out of an abundance of caution, I wrote to you, Ms. Beckage, and asked for you to confirm that you had all of the exhibits I had submitted – including all of the “Supplements”. I even gave you a laundry list of each exhibit I has submitted.

On December 11, 2014, you, Ms. Urice, responded to that inquiry and indicated you had received everything I identified, except for three recent filings with the Texas Supreme Court that had very little to do with the essence of my grievance against Harrison.

The list I sent you specifically included the missing 10 exhibits. Where did they go?

BODA also tells me that you now claim those 228 pages of documents were the only documents CDC actually reviewed when you dismissed my grievance. What did you do with the other 10 exhibits?

This is a copy of the letter I sent you to ensure there would not be a screw-up when the file was sent to BODA.

Dear Ms. Beckage,

I would like to confirm that you reviewed all of the documents I filed with your office when you made your decision that my complaint was not a valid “complaint” and that even as an “inquiry” it failed to demonstrate professional misconduct. For your convenience, I am providing a checklist of the documents you should have reviewed and should have available for the BODA. Since no additional documents can be submitted to the BODA, it is essential that you verify that the Chief Disciplinary Counsel’s file does indeed contain all of the following documents. I prefer an email response to reduce waiting time.

- Transmittal Letter: Attn; Jeff Dever; re Hard Copy Complaint; sent 11/4/2014.
- Hard Copy; Grievance Form; re Geoffrey Lloyd Harrison; sent 11/4/2014
- Texas Supreme Court Record^{III}:
- (Documents in TxSCt Record; In re Jared Woodfill, Steven F. Hotze, M.D., F.N. Williams, Sr. and Max Miller)
- Reply to Petition for Writ of Mandamus; dated 11/11/2014
- Response to Petition for Writ of Mandamus; dated 10/20/2014
- Petition for Writ of Mandamus; dated 08/26/2014
- Mandamus Record, Volume 1:
 - Equal Rights Ordinance
 - ERO Referendum Petition
 - City Secretary Certification
 - Mayor’s Press Release

- Plaintiff's Original Petition - Woodfill v. Parker

- Plaintiff's Supplemental Petition
- Anna Russell's Original Answer
- City of Houston's Original Answer
- Mayor Parker's Original Answer
- Notice of Removal
- Remand Order
- Trial Court Show Cause Order

- Original Subpoena (exemplar) filed by Geoffrey Harrison
- Motion to Quash Subpoenas; Woodfill v. Parker

- Texas Attorney General Greg Abbott's Letter to Mayor Parker re unconstitutional Subpoenas; dated 10/15/2014; “...direct assault on the religious liberty guaranteed by the First Amendment.”
- U. S. Civil Rights Commission Letter to Mayor Parker re unconstitutional Subpoenas; dated 10/27/2014; “These discovery requests threaten to have a chilling effect on religious and political speech that is protected by the First Amendment.”

- Transcript: "Hannity," Pastor's Interview; dated October 15, 2014.
- Newsmax: Rand Paul Interview; dated 10/16/2014
- Brierbart: Texas Attorney General article re unconstitutional subpoenas
- The Blaze TV; Glen Beck interview with pastors; dated 10/20/2014
- WND: Rush Limbaugh article re “vile”and “filthy” subpoena attack; dated 10/22/2014

You told me – in writing – that you had everything except the items in red. Apparently, now CDC is telling BODA that is not true – and it never was!

One item on that laundry list entitled “Mandamus Record, Volume 1” consists of 228 pages all by itself. That is the only exhibit you sent to BODA – and BODA now claims you are telling them that is the ONLY exhibit CDC looked at when you summarily dismissed my complaint. Moreover, your dismissal notice to me very carefully stated that you were dismissing my grievance “based on the documents submitted”. Is this a game?

Ladies, you made a number of material mistakes of law and procedure when you reached the conclusion that I failed to accuse Harrison of “professional misconduct” – but this is ridiculous! You lost a third of the documents I submitted, including the single most critical document – THE SUBPOENA HARRISON SERVED ON THE CLERGYMEN - and then you pour me out by claiming the “documents submitted failed to allege ‘professional misconduct’”

I need an answer, and I need it immediately. I am up against a deadline created by your rules.

DID YOU, OR DID YOU NOT REVIEW ALL OF THE EXHIBITS I SUBMITTED AS INDICATED ON THE LAUNDRY LIST ABOVE WHEN YOU CLASSIFIED MY GRIEVANCE AS AN “INQUIRY”?

DID YOU, OR DID YOU NOT SEND ALL OF THE DOCUMENTS INDICATED ON THE LAUNDRY LIST TO BODA AS PART OF THE APPEAL FILE?

Kindly respond to this urgent request ASAP.

Sincerely,

John D. Stone/e-signed/

Re: Complaint No. 201406984

Dear Ms. Casper:

Your recent letter addressed to Sue Beckage regarding Geoffrey Lloyd Harrison was forwarded to me. I understand that you are inquiring as to the reason for dismissal of your grievance, and I appreciate your concerns.

The rules of discovery in Texas are broadly designed and construed to enable litigants to obtain the fullest knowledge of all pertinent facts and issues prior to trial. Because of the breadth by which the rules operate to allow full discovery by parties, we cannot determine, on the basis of the documentation submitted, that there was no legitimate basis for the subpoena at issue. Consequently, we determined that the allegations set forth in your grievance did not demonstrate professional misconduct.

Please be reminded that you have thirty days from receipt of our November 21 notice of dismissal to submit your appeal to the Board of Disciplinary Appeals or twenty days to amend and refile your grievance with additional information.

Sincerely,

Re: 201406984 Mary A. Casper – Geoffrey Lloyd Harrison

Dear Ms. Beckage:

Thank you for your letter dated November 21, 2014. You said my complaint didn't demonstrate professional misconduct on Mr. Harrison's part and dismissed it. Obviously I think you're mistaken, or I wouldn't have filed the complaint. I plan to appeal your decision, but I'm not an attorney, so perhaps I'm missing something. Before I waste my time and yours, I'd very much appreciate a further explanation as to why you think issuing subpoenas to clergymen, demanding information that is not relevant to a third-party case, is not an abuse of power and a form of intimidation. The fact that the subpoenas were later withdrawn should have no effect on my complaint. "No harm, no foul" is not a reason for dismissing it with the stroke of a pen. On the contrary, pulling the subpoenas back reinforces my contention that they were invalid to begin with.

Mr. Harrison's actions strike directly at the First Amendment of our Constitution—the very first amendment, because our Founding Fathers considered the freedoms of religion and speech to be absolutely essential to our liberty. I take Mr. Harrison's assault on those rights very seriously.

Ms. Beckage, I have never made a complaint to the Bar before. I didn't make this one lightly or without considerable thought and effort. Since there is a procedure in place for questioning the actions of an attorney, I feel I deserve more than a cursory dismissal without an adequate explanation.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Mary A. Casper

Re: 201406987 Kenneth Casper - Geoffrey Lloyd Harrison

Dear Mr. Casper:

Your recent letter addressed to Sue Beckage regarding Geoffrey Lloyd Harrison was forwarded to me for a response. I understand that you would like clarification regarding the dismissal of your grievance as a “duplicate” filing.

The Office of Chief Disciplinary Counsel is afforded broad discretion in its administration of the attorney grievance system. In order to promote efficiency and avoid unwarranted duplication of cases, when our office receives a grievance alleging identical misconduct against the same individual that does involve separate harm to the Complainant, that grievance is dismissed as a duplicate filing and only the original grievance is considered on its merits.

Please be advised that the original grievance was dismissed after a determination that the allegations did not demonstrate professional misconduct. In addition, please be reminded that you have thirty days from receipt of our November 21 notice of dismissal to submit your appeal to the Board of Disciplinary Appeals.

Re: 20146987 Kenneth Casper – Geoffrey Lloyd Harrison

Dear Ms. Beckage:

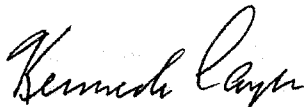

Thank you for your timely response to my recent complaint. I was disappointed that it was dismissed as a "duplicate" of someone else's complaint. I would greatly appreciate a bit of clarification.

The State Bar publishes a host of documents and online publications that state "any person" can file a grievance against a Texas lawyer. I found no limitation stated, and no rule given, regarding "duplication". If there is such a rule, would you kindly tell me where I can find it so I can review it before making a decision about how to proceed?

I think you'll agree that a lawyer's misconduct can affect more than one person, which, in my estimation, Mr. Harrison's actions clearly do in this case. It's also my understanding that my right to file a complaint about a lawyer's misconduct should not be subordinated to the actions taken by some other individual over whom I have no control. As I understand it, a complaint can be upheld, dropped or modified at anytime, yet because of "confidentiality" I might never know what happened to the "other" complaint against Mr. Harrison. If that "other" complaint were to be dropped, what would happen to my right to assert a grievance?

Ms. Beckage, the situation in Houston and Mr. Harrison's role in it is a very serious matter to me, as I'm sure it is to the Disciplinary Council's Office. Again, I thank you for your response and look forward to receiving your clarification, so I can decide what course of action to pursue.

Sincerely,

Kenneth Casper

Additional Complainant Correspondence Summary Memo

Ibe, Dominic

On December 5, 2015, CDC received correspondence from Mr. Ibe. His letter contained generalized complaints regarding the dismissal of his grievance and no actionable items. Because CDC personnel had spoken with Mr. Dominic previous to his correspondence regarding the matter referenced in his letter, CDC did not provide additional response.

Rigdon, Jackie Jr.

CDC received correspondence from Mr. Rigdon on December 9, 2014. The letter complained generally of the State Bar but contained no actionable items. Consequently, CDC did not provide a response.

Simpson, Gregory

On March 4, 2014, Mr. Simpson called CDC Special Administrative Counsel Julie Liddell seeking information regarding remedies for BODA's denial of his appeal. Ms. Liddell promptly returned Mr. Simpson's call and explained that BODA's decision was final and that, short of filing a new grievance alleging new misconduct, the proceedings with respect to his grievance had come to close.

Asbury, Debbie

CDC received copies of correspondence sent by Ms. Asbury on the following dates:

- December 18, 2014
- January 5, 2015
- January 12, 2015
- January 31, 2015
- March 5, 2015

Some correspondence was directed to CDC and others were not. CDC personnel have communicated with Ms. Asbury previous to this correspondence with no success. Each correspondence from Ms. Asbury has been voluminous—hundreds of pages containing generalized grievances and various other documents—and has included no actionable items. Consequently, CDC has not provided additional response.

Dear Maureen E. Ray:

After reviewing your letter of August 13, 2014 relating to my package to you, I still believe that you have the duty to have Darlene Ewing return my property and her debt to me that the law does not give her the duty to deny me. You should also have justice prevail over Darlene Darensburg for rule violations at the expense of our children.

I provided you evidence of precedence in past cases that we in this country handled based on facts. As a matter of fact, my initial filings of my grievances were timely. I believe they were thrown out and my appeals based on powers/and relationship between the Board and lawyers. I provided you evidence of what Justice Sandra Day O' Conner for example said about lawyers. You are aware too but pretend not to.

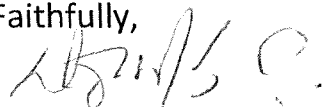

If your role was as you stated in your letter, you hung your phone on me that was demeaning. So that was your role too? And you want me to just forget it? I have no control over the pains you cause me.

I believe your statement relating about reviewing materials from my files does not hold. That is why we still prosecute those who persecuted innocent citizens for no just cause no matter how long it takes for us to find them and the truth. The truth sets us free. We don't forget betrayals and other evils done to innocent people like me just as we don't forget the good we receive from good men and women. Because we don't forget the above, that is why a day is set aside especially every year in this country and beyond to remember the passion of Christ and His birth. If you could remember all you stated about not reconsidering my grievances, I believe I have good reason to remember that you and your Board owe me a duty to ensure that I receive the justice you denied me. I do want you to understand that I am not fighting you but the power in you.

I am sending you this inspired message: please go back and review my grievances and have Darlene Ewing return my property and refund. "Agreement is agreement." If there was mechanism to throw out my grievances as I stated above, my facts are good mechanism to grant justice in my grievances so my mind can rest. If you don't, one day, the Lord Jesus Christ, His Majesty shall remind you this message(s). I pray you do not test Him to remind you because I believe you will not like the result. This is not a curse or a threat. I am delivering a message and I will appreciate your understanding. Thank you!

Faithfully,

Dear Mr. Simpson:

I am writing to let you know that the Court has received your letter and attachments related to the attorney grievance process. Thank you for taking the time to provide this information to the Court.

While the Court appreciates your time and effort in addressing these concerns, the Court has decided to take no action in this matter. You specifically asked in your letter to be informed of your next legal avenue complaint options above and beyond the Supreme Court of Texas. I am aware of none.

However, the Commission for Lawyer Discipline has a Special Administrative Counsel named Julie Liddell, who may be a good resource for you to call. Her number is 512-427-1347, if you would like to discuss your grievance-related concern with her.

Sincerely,

RE: Preferential Treatment of the Mayor of New Braunfels; Enabling Barron Casteel to Engage in Barratry, Dishonesty, Fraud, Deceit and Misrepresentation in his Law Practice

Dear Ms. S. M. Beckage, Assistant Disciplinary Counsel:

I am again providing my Grievance dated July 30th, 2014¹ against Barron Casteel. I require that CDC must immediately read and classify it. I am offended that you have chosen to return my original Grievance with full documentation, previously, without reading and investigating it. It is inappropriate you contend that it is I, the Complainant, who is in the wrong by filing a Grievance against Barron Casteel regarding a second Lawsuit that he filed against me on June 5th, 2014.

You have deemed my Grievance dated July 30th, 2014 against Barron Casteel as unacceptable per an unintelligible, ambiguous principle that you persist CDC maintains against the filing of "MULTIPLE GRIEVANCES" by a Complainant. Yet, I insist that the only obvious problem that CDC need be immediately concerned with is that of the Respondent, Barron Casteel, who has filed filing two (2) separate, tedious and time consuming Lawsuits against me, as a Defendant, in the last seven years. I can think of no other recourse to take except to file Grievances while Barron Casteel is, in fact, openly engaging in Barratry and Misconduct and defying the CDC to take Disciplinary Action.

In your letter dated November 12th, 2014, RE: MULTIPLE GRIEVANCES,² you assert that, by the authority of your position of Assistant Disciplinary Counsel of the CDC, you can disregard Rules of The Texas Government Code (TEX GV. CODE), and; thereby, deprive me of my Constitutional Right to Due Process. I contend that you have a dishonest motivation to silence my valid protests against Barron Casteel, the current Mayor of New Braunfels and are demonstrating an improper prejudice against me, as a Complainant in the Grievance Process.

Your refusal to classify my Grievance dated July 30th, 2014 against Barron Casteel regarding a second Lawsuit he filed against me in 2014, as either an inquiry or a Complaint, is in direct opposition to the TEX GV. CODE, Section 82.073, which protects the rights of Complainants in the Grievance Process. I contend that it is your Duty as Assistant Disciplinary Counsel, to safeguard my Right to file Grievances against the offensive attorney, Barron Casteel, in an effort to protect, not only me, but other Texas Citizens from the Barratry and Misconduct as I have fully described in my well-documented Grievances against Barron Casteel.

² See attached letter dated November 12th, 2014, RE: MULTIPLE GRIEVANCES, signed by S.M. Beckage, Assistant Disciplinary Counsel, CDC, STATE BAR OF TEXAS.

RE: Your URGENT Assistance Required to Establish Citizens' Right to Due Process in The Grievance Process Administered by The Office of the Chief Disciplinary Counsel (CDC), THE STATE BAR OF TEXAS

Dear Mr. Guy Harrison, Chair, The Commission for Lawyer Discipline:

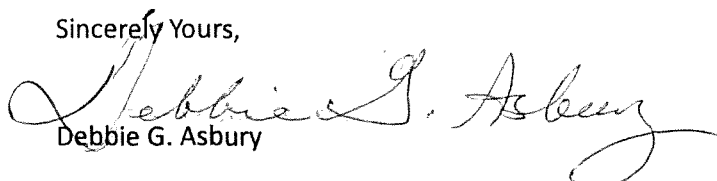

I have challenged the CDC's refusal to classify my Grievance dated July 30th, 2014 against Barron Casteel, in accordance with TEX GV. CODE, Section 81.073 and; thereby, deprive me of my Constitutional Right to Due Process. I have made a formal Written Complaint per the Rules dictated in TEX GV. CODE, Section 81.036. Please assist me by requiring CDC to respond to my Written Complaint.

The Subject Matter of my Written Complaint to Ms. S.M. Beckage, Assistant Disciplinary Counsel, CDC, State Bar of Texas

CDC's rejection of any Grievance, and failure to make any record, and classify any Grievance cannot be abided by Texas Citizens per Statutes and Rules:

- (1.) Rule 8.4: Misconduct – American Bar Association, Maintaining The Integrity of The Profession
- (2.) TEX GV. CODE, Section 81.072 requiring the classification of all Grievances
- (3.) The TEXAS RULES OF DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURE, Section 2.10 requiring CDC's Classification
- (4.) The Due Process Clause, which accords Complainants in the Grievance Process inalienable Rights; including the Right to Notice, the Right to Grieve, and the Right to Appeal.

Dear Mr. Guy Harrison, Chair, Commission for Lawyer Discipline:

Assistant Disciplinary Counsel S.M. Beckage has rejected my Grievance dated July 30th, 2014 against Barron Casteel four (4) times, to date; refusing to read my Grievance with many pages of documentation of Barron Casteel's Barratry and Misconduct; making no record, and apparently intending to disavow any knowledge of my Grievance. I have attached the four (4) standard form letters, "RE: MULTIPLE GRIEVANCES." Please note that the only differences on the standard form letters are in the date; i.e., December 22, 2014, November 12th, 2014, September 8th, 2014 and August 5th, 2014; and; that two are unsigned and two are signed by Assistant Disciplinary Counsel S.M. Beckage.

Assistant Disciplinary Counsel Beckage's refusal to read, consider and reply to my letter dated December 15th, 2014 commands that prompt disciplinary action take place within the State Bar's own staff of counselors. Demonstrating a contemptible disregard of me and all other Texas Complainants, Assistant Disciplinary Counsel Beckage does not deem it necessary to make any further responses to my letter to her, RE: Preferential Treatment of the Mayor of New Braunfels; Enabling Barron Casteel to Engage in Barratry, Dishonesty, Fraud, Deceit and Misrepresentation in his Law Practice, dated December 15th, 2014; so I must continue to seek help to obtain answers I require from CDC. Perhaps, you will determine it is your professional responsibility to publicly recognize and admonish the CDC for the disgraceful Grievance Rejection and Denial Procedure, directly opposing TEX GV. CODE, Section 81.073, which is meant to protect the rights of Complainants in the Grievance Process. Any such Rejection and Denial Procedure, prohibiting a Complainant's Right to a Proper Notice whether a Grievance is classified as an Inquiry or Complaint by CDC; and to Grieve and to Appeal the Classification if a Complainant determines it to be warranted, is a disconcerting error that must be eliminated immediately.

Please help me obtain an answer to my Written Complaint per the Rules in TEX GV. CODE, Section 81.036.

Sincerely Yours,

Debbie G. Asbury

RE: The State Bar of Texas, The Office of the Chief Disciplinary Counsel's (CDC's) Refusal to Read my Grievance Amendment, 201405100/201407486 "Debbie G. Asbury – Adam Alden Campbell dated December 8th, 2014"

Dear Mr. Guy Harrison, Chair, Commission for Lawyer Discipline:

I provided a Grievance Amendment on December 8th, 2014 per The TEXAS RULES OF DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURE, Section 2.10. CDC's Assistant Disciplinary Counsel S.M. Beckage refused to read my Grievance Amendment, insinuating that my Grievance, dated August 19th, 2014, had previously been classified as an "Inquiry" by BODA; therefore, no allegations made in the Amendment, dated December 8th, 2014, had any relevance to her in properly classifying my Grievance as a Complaint (rather than an "Inquiry" to be immediately dismissed without investigation). Per Assistant Disciplinary Counsel S.M. Beckage's "Dismissal Notice" dated December 29th, 2014:

"The Office of the Chief Disciplinary Counsel of the State Bar of Texas has examined your grievance concerning the above-referenced individual and determined these allegations have been previously considered and dismissed by The Board of Disciplinary Appeals. Accordingly, this grievance has been dismissed as an Inquiry."

I must continue to seek help to obtain answers I require from CDC. Perhaps, you will determine it is your professional responsibility to publicly recognize and admonish the CDC for the disgraceful improper Notices Procedure and Grievance Denial Procedures directly opposing TEX GV. CODE, Section 81.073, which is meant to protect the Rights of Complainants in the Grievance Process. CDC's improper Notices Procedure and Grievance Denial Procedures, prohibiting a Complainant's Right to a Proper Notice which gives an understandable reason why a Grievance is classified as an Inquiry or Complaint by CDC; and to file Grievances and Grievances Amendments; and to Appeal the Classification, if a Complainant determines it to be warranted, are disconcerting errors that must be eliminated immediately.

Please help me obtain an answer to my Written Complaint per the Rules in TEX GV. CODE, Section 81.036.

Sincerely Yours,

Debbie G. Asbury

RE: CDC's Non-Compliance with the Grievance Procedure as Mandated by The Supreme Court of Texas.

Dear Guy Harrison, Chair, Commission for Lawyer Discipline:

S.M. Beckage has abandoned her Duty, as Assistant Disciplinary Counsel for The Office of the Chief Disciplinary Counsel (CDC), to comply with Grievance Procedures as directed by The Supreme Court of Texas. Contemptibly, CDC, under supervision of The Texas State Bar, has been promulgating an unlawful Grievance Rejection and Denial Procedure, opposing the stated purposes of CDC, provided by The Supreme Court of Texas.

Please constrain The State Bar of Texas employees who are participating in or adhering to the unlawful Grievance Rejection and Denial Procedure propagated by CDC and BODA. Contemptibly, S.M. Beckage, CDC's Assistant Disciplinary Counsel and BODA's Executive Director, Christine E. McKeeman, are currently conducting an investigation of my Grievance against Adam Alden Campbell dated August 19th, 2014 in secret. Respondent Attorney has received no Notices whatsoever from CDC and two (2) improper and conflicting Notices from BODA on the Matter so crucial to his future career in his chosen Profession of Law.

- The first (of two) conflicting Notices from BODA improperly advises that the Appeal of my Grievance filed on August 19th, 2014 has been denied and dismissed with no more Appeal Rights.

The respondent attorney Adam Alden Campbell was provided with a copy of BODA's standard Grievance Rejection and Denial Notice form letter, signed by Christine E. McKeeman, and dated November 19th, 2014. It indicates that BODA has dismissed my Grievance as an "inquiry-for which no further investigation" will be required and no more Appeals accepted from me, the Complainant. Therefore, Respondent Attorney Adam Alden Campbell is not privy to the fact of my Grievance Amendment filed on December 8th, 2014, properly filed (in accordance with The TEXAS RULES OF DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURE, Section 2.10) within 20 days of my receipt of BODA's incorrect and misleading standard Grievance Rejection and Denial Notice form letter, signed by Christine E. McKeeman, and dated November 19th, 2014.

- The second (of two) conflicting letters from BODA advises that, although previously both CDC and BODA agreed my Grievance against Respondent Attorney Campbell filed on August 19th, 2014 was dismissed as an "inquiry-requiring no further investigation," the same Grievance will AGAIN be reviewed by CDC and "three (3) BODA Members" in a clandestine conference. Humiliating to The Supreme Court of Texas and The State Bar of Texas is the fact that the two (2) paragraph letter misspells the word, "Disciplinary" and tersely mentions in bold type face: "The attorney does not need to respond or take any action at this time unless contacted to do so."

RE: The Grievance Oversight Committee (GOC) Eschews Non-Attorney Input in Its Review of the Operation of the Attorney-Client Grievance Process, Prohibiting my Valid Feedback from Reaching The Supreme Court of Texas

Dear Special Administrative Counsel Maureen E. Ray:

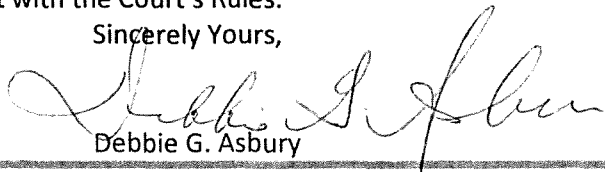

Grievance Complainants are insulted by improper, incomprehensible and unexplained classifications by CDC and BODA of our Grievances as "inquiries" – which require no further investigation by The Office of the Chief Disciplinary Counsel, CDC. Instead of providing input of the improprieties of Grievances classifications by CDC and the Board of Disciplinary Appeals (BODA), GOC stands as a chief impediment to The Supreme Court of Texas' recognition of the prevalence of The State Bar of Texas Grievance Process' failure to adhere to TX Supreme Court's mandates, i.e., TEX GV. CODE ANN. Section 81.072 and Section 81.073. Grievance Complainants are thwarted by The State Bar of Texas Grievance System, "as is," due to its failures to provide:

- CDC investigations of offenses against us by Texas attorneys when transgressions certainly do constitute Professional Misconduct cognizable under the Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct 2.10,
- Full explanations of why our valid Grievances, documenting Professional Misconduct, as it is defined in the TDRPC, are dismissed as unimportant "inquiries" – which require no further investigation by CDC.

It is entirely inappropriate that any further GOC meetings, wasting the time of Texas Citizens (and at our expense) be scheduled until there is a ruling on the PETITION FOR ADMINISTRATIVE RELIEF, an Original Proceeding in The Supreme Court of Texas, filed by Marc R. Stanley on September 29th, 2014 which contends:

- in the STATEMENT OF THIS CASE: The current dysfunctional state of the Texas attorney disciplinary system and its clear violations of this Court's procedural rules governing the attorney disciplinary system in Texas undermine the authority of this Court, the administration of justice, and the respect of the public for the legal profession in Texas.
- In the PRAYER: Therefore, Petitioner respectfully requests that the Court grant this Petition, establish an administrative docket for this matter, and administratively enforce compliance with its Rules by ordering the State Bar of Texas, the Office of Chief Disciplinary Counsel, and the Board of Disciplinary Appeals to scrupulously apply the Court's Texas Rules of Disciplinary Procedure, as written, and without adding arbitrary, extra-legal exceptions that are inconsistent with the Court's Rules.

 - a. If you answered no, why do you think the system is unfair?
Although we like your appeal system we have a problem with how you answered our grievance. We sent you an entire packet of evidence and questions, yet all you sent back was a simple answer of that you did not think they did anything wrong. We cannot accept that answer. The answer you gave was very vague; you have to be more specific.

The panel did not consider facts on records that Mr. Giles is still acting as an advocate, and representing me in his affidavits filed January 15, 2013. Under the 10 years limitations and professional misconducts one occurring, also recorded # 57051, -NOV. 12, 2012, to the STATE BAR.

- 14. Do you have any suggestions for improving the grievance system?
Provide that attorneys at fault, should be disciplined over the 10 years limitations, as long as they're involved in the cases, have violated disciplinary rules and procedures failed to provide effective assistance of counsel at trial, and during the appeal processes, and when situations have not been resolved!

 - a. If you answered no, why do you think the system is unfair?
In my case my attorney had spoke several times on my case, so he knew not to never discuss a plea bargain with the D.A. So he just basically stole my money & did nothing for me.
- 14. Do you have any suggestions for improving the grievance system?
Yes, in my case if someone would pull my file, they would see that I am telling the truth.

And the grievance system is allowing attorneys to do it. No motions was filed as far as I know. Attorney Jackson did nothing in my defense.

The Disciplinary Counsel needs to hold lawyers accountable for their actions when they are sworn to uphold the law. As if to say lawyers are above the law when there are not, but the disciplinary counsel is letting them get away with breaking the law.

When lawyers break the law they should be punished, and answer to someone for breaking the law they sworn to uphold. We all have to answer to someone. Lawyers should be no different.

my grievance was dismissed stating "the conduct you described is not a violation of disciplinary rules," - EVEN though I stated the rule, exactly how it was violated with physical evidence that proves it was violated and an attorney was a witness to verify the rule was violated, and still I was dismissed a first 2
14. Do you have any suggestions for improving the grievance system? weeks,
Yes. Actually investigate complaints that have merit. Don't just Rubber stamp a dismissal. The rule I stated was clearly violated and I even provided e-mails from the attorney of complaint that proves he lied and is withholding my client file to no resolution

a. If you answered no, why do you think the system is unfair?
Rich people dont know $15000. cost us so much on a fixed income so when I came to end the case I had 3 attorneys

14. Do you have any suggestions for improving the grievance system?
Ms Sherrod didnt know what she was supposed to do she caused me to lose the case before it even got started luckily I changed attorneys, it was my bad luck the 2nd attorney had to move suddenly, attorney #3 one Graham had to plead w/ the judge to let us proceed, even though the case would have been closed, which was an uphill battle. Ms Sherrod should never have taken the case, because she didnt know where or how to begin.

(Apparently at Fed Ex, getting injured on the job is a company violation.

In Texas individual civil rights are non-protected and non-existent. When it comes to Corporate America, Texas has become a soul selling state. And attorneys in Texas only defend the interests of the WEALTHY. Serving to help create this TWO CLASS SOCIETY. Rich & Poor

It is basically lawyers protecting lawyers from clients who have been harmed by ineffective assistance of counsel

14. Do you have any suggestions for improving the grievance system?
Why not let former clients judge the performance of lawyers in cases such as mine? I have put in a motion to dismiss and appoint counsel who would adhere to code of professional conduct Rule 101 and 102
