  - a. If you answered no, why do you think the system is unfair?

It would appear that, unless an attorney does something specifically 'criminal', there is no recovery to their actions or inactions. If I had done my own paperwork, paid the $263 county fee, and walked away with the results I have, people would have said, 'Tsk, tsk, you should have had an attorney.' Well, tsk, tsk, I 'did' have an attorney. I questioned his fiduciary responsibility and ethics and my complaint was dismissed.

When the judge signed my papers, she peered at me and said, 'Good Luck'. I thought she was referring to my starting life again after twenty-five years of marriage. Now, I consider that she may have been referencing past work of my representing attorney.

What do I want? I want a court order adding my name again to the deed of the mortgaged property, in the event my former spouse should 'expire' before it is paid off or sold. I also want a court order giving my former spouse a 'reasonable' amount of time, seven months or less, in which to make arrangements to assume the existing mortgage. Given the mess he has made of our joint credit, six months on a job as well as a mandate that he pay, through the court, if necessary, on time, every thirty days, should make it possible for this to happen in seven months. If he fails to assume the loan, for whatever reason, wording would allow for me to take possession of the property. This would be his incentive to make this happen. I would Not retain him as a tenant.

I would not want to pay ANYTHING for this court visit, but I would consider paying for one-hour of attorney service.

14. Do you have any suggestions for improving the grievance system?

Consider the overreaching harm that is done when there is a question of the failure of 'due diligence' having been applied.

The Disciplinary System is unfair because no regional office sends their people to investigate the inquiries made from the prisoners. The system that is in place assists the Prosecutors or the D.A.
- 14. Do you have any suggestions for improving the grievance system? Yes.
First, please stop making the grievance system help the prosecutors or the D.A. Second, send people from any regional office to investigate the grievancees that are reported by the prisoners. Lastly, send people some kind of response that the regional office is looking into the inquiry and send the final results.

Karen Choate
Disciplinary System Questionnaire
RE: 201505452 - Karen Choate - Dawn M. Korman

I am legally blind, so the spaces allowed in your form were way too small for my replies. Even if I had no visual impairments, the spaces allowed were too small.

5. I did not feel HEARD by the Evidentiary Panel. NO ONE ever contacted me to ask any questions regarding my claims or supporting documents. Yet my documentation was discounted while Ms. Korman's tardy, inflammatory reply, which appeared to spend an inordinate amount of verbiage personally attacking me - labeling me "angry" - was accepted.

I received only basic form letters that revealed procedural time tables.

Ms. Korman failed to meet the deadline set for her response, not even asking for an extension until AFTER she missed her deadline - according to a phone conversation I had with a person who answered the phone for the State Bar. Yet the Panel seemed to not care that clearly the sanctions Ms. Korman had been under from a previous review were not affecting change. Instead the Panel seemed to reward Ms. Korman's apparent LACK OF RESPECT for the process rather than chastise her for not abiding by the terms of her previous discipline.

11. a. I spoke only with a staff member to provide her a new email address (KdkCho@twc.com), ask about the status of the appeal, and ask about being able to reply to Ms. Korman's offensive, mostly off-topic, tardy response. b. I do not know her name.

12. The staff person I spoke with politely answered my questions, and volunteered the information that the State Bar had contacted Ms. Korman regarding her overdue response.

13. a. Given the FACTS that Ms. Korman proved that she has timeliness issues by missing even the very-important response deadline, apologized in emails for her delays, and had her lack of timeliness regarding her post-mediation acts detailed in an email from my lawyer to me (all emails just cited were submitted in my Complaint's documentation), how could I feel that the process which refused to act on Ms. Korman's lack of timeliness while substituting its own charge was fair?

14. Yes, I suggest that:

- A. the Evidentiary Panel actually talk with ALL of the involved parties.
- B. you do not allow extensions requested AFTER your deadline was missed, and
- C. you more closely monitor the acts of lawyers who have been disciplined by the State Bar (suspended and/or on probation). Delegating a lawyer's monitoring does not relieve you of the responsibility of verifying that the sanctions improve professionalism. Ms. Korman was supposed to have been monitored by her boss, Mr. Jim Jarvis. By allowing Ms. Korman to continue having timeliness issues - even to the point of his not ensuring that she respond to the Grievance by the original deadline - Mr. Jarvis showed inadequate monitoring. He even joined her in attacking me personally rather than focusing on the issues in his tardy response! Sadly, his firm and my lawyer's firm BENEFITTED FINANCIALLY by the increased costs that arose due to Ms. Korman's repeated tardiness (as documented in my previous correspondences to the State Bar). As my deceased father used to say, "Aw hell, pay attention!"

TALK TO BOTH SIDES DO NOT RELY ON WHAT IS WRITTEN. A LAWYER CAN HIDE THE TRUTH IN THEIR WORDS BUT IT IS DIFFICULT FOR A LAY PERSON TO EXPRESS EVERYTHING IN WRITING. IF I HAD BEEN GIVEN THE CHANCE TO EXPLAIN VERBALLY I BELIEVE A DIFFERENT CONCLUSION WOULD HAVE BEEN MET.

- 14. Do you have any suggestions for improving the grievance system?
Offer a lawyer representation if it goes as far as the panel because there was obvious reason to believe. I should have been able to be present being it was my grievance.

I should have a right to appeal. I feel there is something fishy w/ respondent's relationship w/ bar. The clerk lied in her email & accused me of being blind & multiple disabilities. I should have received ad litem who was placed w/ me through CPS & is blind & multiple disabilities.

In specific email she states that she hopes the she + Team Peltier can work out everything in so many words

Then in same email she withdraws + all I wanted was ~~or~~ a sit down explanation of charges, discounts + go over complaints. She also stated I didnt give her files + that was why they were unprepared. I gave over the entire case file from Jack's birth to present.

This is so wrong. I see attorneys getting reprimanded for less like Gayle Nelson who represented us in her place who had previously been suspended yet she said she had the utmost confidence in her + now Ms. Nelson's been suspended recently after my complaint.

I could go on + on but its all in case file. We are talking about a ~~the~~ child who was born on drugs, blind + multiple disabilities.

PLEASE I need an explanation.

I'm devastated + have been since hearing. I'm also disabled + am forced to drive 20 hrs. a mo. I want help please.
