Re: #H0071133317 Frederick Brown – Mark Grantom

Dear Mr. Brown:

I am writing at the request of your wife to impart the findings in my investigation into the processing of your complaint against Mr. Grantom. In my investigation, I reviewed materials from the file and spoken with the staff who were involved in the processing.

As you know, a panel of the local grievance committee dismissed your complaint on December 14 of last year. It did so because it did not find sufficient evidence of professional misconduct on which to proceed.

Upon reviewing materials from the file, I can tell you that the transcripts of the court proceedings were the best evidence of what occurred in the underlying matter, as they reflect sworn testimony. According to the transcripts, Mr. Grantom was disqualified from representing Ms. Easterling because he had become a fact witness in the matter. There was no admonishment by the judge of Mr. Grantom for burdensome conduct on his part. The witnesses you mentioned in your complaint were not interviewed because the court transcripts were definitive on the issues.

I anticipate that you will disagree with this analysis, but I have tried my best to provide information to you concerning why the complaint was dismissed. Because there is no appeal from a decision of the grievance panel, and I have not found a mechanism by which it may be reconsidered, this matter has been closed.

Thank you nonetheless for seeking this investigation. Please be assured that your voice and concerns have been heard.

Yours very truly,

Re: #D0091143987 Phillip Cast – Melody Mills

Dear Mr. Cast:

At your request, I have conducted an investigation into the processing of your complaint against Ms. Mills. In my investigation, I reviewed materials from the file and spoke with the staff who were involved in the processing.

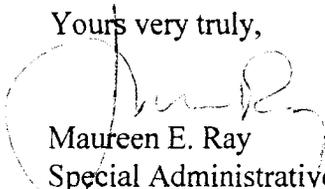

As you know, a panel of the local grievance committee dismissed your complaint on January 25 of this year. It did so because it did not find sufficient evidence of professional misconduct on which to proceed.

Upon reviewing materials from the file, I can tell you that Ms. Mills's response was persuasive that she carried out reasonably diligent work on your behalf. It also appears from the submissions that she made efforts to keep you informed of the status of your matter. Dissatisfactions with the handling of a legal matter, as may be the case here, set forth claims of malpractice and are not necessarily violations of the Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct.

With this analysis, I have tried my best to provide information to you concerning why the complaint was dismissed. Because there is no appeal from a decision of the grievance panel, and I have not found a mechanism by which it may be reconsidered, this matter has been closed.

Thank you nonetheless for seeking this information. Please be assured that your voice and concerns have been heard.

#S0021124892 Hermelinda Garza – Jana Richard, and #S0111126271, second filing

Dear Ms. Garza:

As the information resource officer for the disciplinary system, your letter Chief Disciplinary Counsel Linda Acevedo was forwarded to me for a response. In order to educate myself about your grievances against Mr. Lindow and Ms. Richard, I have reviewed materials from those files.

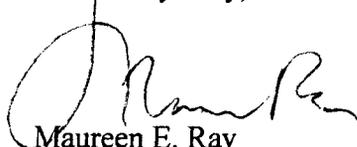

As you state to Ms. Acevedo, all four grievances were dismissed during classification last year. The Classification Attorney Mr. Leuty dismissed both of the initial grievances because he determined that they did not contain an allegation of a violation of the Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct. The Board of Disciplinary Appeals (BODA) affirmed these determinations. Mr. Leuty dismissed your second filings because he found that you had not submitted new evidence related to an allegation of a violation.

Please be advised that, pursuant to the Texas Rules of Disciplinary Procedure, it was incumbent upon you to submit additional evidence for your second filings. Additionally, Mr. Leuty's duties as a Classification Attorney allow him to dismiss your grievances.

Because you have both appealed to BODA and also refiled your grievances, you have utilized all of your available recourses in the rules. Accordingly, these matters have been closed and, under the rules, may not be reconsidered.

Thank you nonetheless for pursuing additional information about the dismissals.

Re: #D0061143226 Lucy Hughes – Raul Loya

Dear Ms. Hughes:

At your request, I have conducted an investigation into the processing of your complaint against Mr. Loya. In my investigation, I reviewed materials from the file and spoke with the staff who were involved in the processing.

As you know, a panel of the local grievance committee dismissed your complaint on December 5 of last year. It did so because it did not find sufficient evidence of professional misconduct on which to proceed.

Upon reviewing materials from the file, I can tell you that Mr. Loya's response was persuasive that he filed the lawsuit within the statute of limitations when measured from your last day's work at Dillard's. The submissions do not describe a discrimination case that could or should have been won if only litigation steps had been taken earlier. Additionally, the submissions support that there was periodic communication over the course of the representation. Although Mr. Loya did not appear at your deposition, he did make arrangements to have someone there to represent you.

Ms. Hughes, I have tried my best to provide information to you concerning why the complaint was dismissed. Because there is no appeal from a decision of the grievance panel, and I have not found a mechanism by which it may be reconsidered, this matter has been closed.

Dear Ms. Jones:

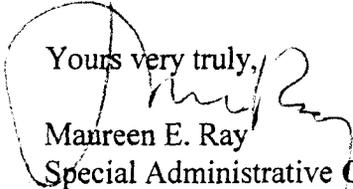

As the information resource officer for the disciplinary system, at your request I have conducted an investigation into the processing of your complaint against Mr. Gray. In so doing, I have reviewed materials from the file and spoken with the staff who were involved in the processing.

As you know, your complaint was dismissed by a panel of the local grievance committee on November 3 of last year. The grievance panel dismissed because it did not find sufficient evidence of professional misconduct on which to proceed.

After reviewing materials from the file, I can tell you that Mr. Gray's response was persuasive that he or someone acting at his request was at every court hearing set for you and Mr. Thrower; also that you had made statements to him which corroborated Dallas peace officer Anaya's affidavits concerning the underlying matter.

On the issue of a refund, Mr. Gray stated that he did issue you a $1,000 refund, but when it was not cashed after nine weeks, a stop payment was issued on the check. The State Bar of Texas does not handle fee disputes. If you have continuing fee issues, you may wish to contact the Dallas Bar Association at 214/220-7400 or mail a letter explaining the dispute to the Dallas Bar Association, Attn: Fee Disputes Committee, 2101 Ross Ave., Dallas TX 75201.

As there is no appeal from a decision of the grievance panel, and I have found no mechanism by which the matter may be reconsidered, this matter has been closed. Thank you nonetheless for pursuing additional information about the dismissal.

Dear Ms. Lampkin:

At your request, I have conducted an investigation into the processing of your complaint against Ms. Stevens. In my investigation, I reviewed materials from the file and spoke with the staff who were involved in the processing.

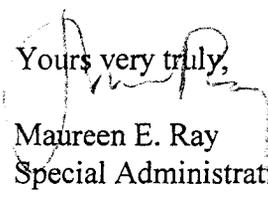

As you know, a panel of the local grievance committee dismissed your complaint on January 23 of this year. It did so because it did not find sufficient evidence of professional misconduct on which to proceed.

Upon reviewing materials from the file, I can tell you that Ms. Stevens's response and attachment were persuasive that she sent you a copy of the temporary orders restricting the children's residence to Tarrant County. It also appears that Ms. Stevens was reasonably diligent in carrying out work in your matter, even though you were unhappy with timing of the hearing dates, for which the court itself was responsible. Additionally, although there was some difficulty with her office phone number, Ms. Stevens credibly stated that she kept you reasonably informed about status throughout the matter and gave you her cell phone number for your use in calling her.

With this analysis, I have tried my best to provide information to you concerning why the complaint was dismissed. Because there is no appeal from a decision of the grievance panel, and I have not found a mechanism by which it may be reconsidered, this matter has been closed.

Dear Mr. Leitzman:

At your request, I have conducted an investigation into the processing of your complaint against Ms. King. In my investigation, I reviewed materials from the file and spoke with the staff who were involved in the processing.

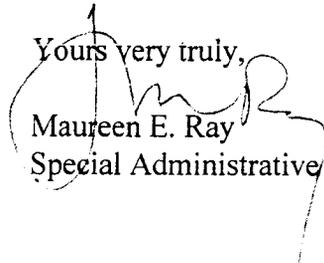

As you know, a panel of the local grievance committee dismissed your complaint on January 25 of this year. It did so because it did not find sufficient evidence of professional misconduct on which to proceed.

Upon reviewing materials from the file, I can tell you that Ms. King's response was persuasive that she explained to you that your ex-wife Sharon was her only client and that you were representing yourself. Your acknowledgement of this is reflected in the Rule 11 agreement which you signed as "Lonald Leitzman, Pro Se." Given this, it is highly improbable that an evidentiary tribunal would find that Ms. King had committed misconduct.

With this analysis, I have tried my best to provide information to you concerning why the complaint was dismissed. Because there is no appeal from a decision of the grievance panel, and I have not found a mechanism by which it may be reconsidered, this matter has been closed.

Re: #D0101041483 John Loera – Hollie Greene

Dear Mr. Loera:

At your request, I have conducted an investigation into the processing of your complaint against Ms. Greene. In my investigation, I reviewed materials from the file and spoke with the staff who were involved in the processing.

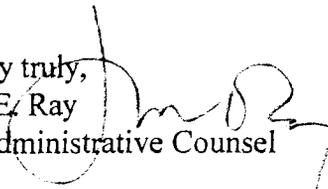

As you know, the Commission for Lawyer Discipline directed the evidentiary panel to dismiss your complaint on January 24 of this year. It did so because, weighing the probability of obtaining a sanction against Ms. Greene and the disadvantages involved in proving the case, it decided not to proceed. As the client for attorney disciplinary proceedings, the office of the chief disciplinary counsel is bound to follow its instructions.

Upon reviewing materials from the file, I know that the main issue was your contention that Ms. Greene altered the mediated settlement agreement and the final decree of divorce. Ms. Greene specifically denied altering either document. You signed off on both documents after having an opportunity for review. Since the agreement was essentially reached over the telephone after you walked out of the mediation, there is no trail of written drafts or discussions regarding the agreement and consequently a scarcity of evidence to support your claims. In light of these factors, it is very improbable that the evidentiary panel would have found that Ms. Greene committed misconduct.

With this analysis, I have tried my best to provide information to you concerning why the complaint was dismissed. Because there is no appeal from a decision of the Commission for Lawyer Discipline, and I have not found a mechanism by which it may be reconsidered, this matter has been closed.

Thank you nonetheless for seeking this information. Please be assured that your voice and concerns have been heard.

Re: #D0081143834 Violeta Paskauskiene – Robert Wiley

Dear Ms. Paskauskiene:

At your request, I have conducted an investigation into the processing of your complaint against Robert Wiley. In so doing, I have reviewed materials from the file and spoken to members of the staff who were involved in the processing.

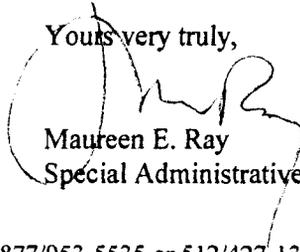

As you know, your complaint was dismissed by a panel of the local grievance committee on January 5 of this year. The panel dismissed because it did not find sufficient evidence of professional conduct on which to proceed.

From reviewing materials from the file, I can tell you that Mr. Wiley's response was persuasive that the contract you signed put you on notice that other attorneys at the firm, such as Ms. Cho, might perform "much of" the work on your case. Additionally, although you stated to me your dissatisfaction with Ms. Cho's work, it is apparent that she accomplished much work on your behalf, including replying to the pre-determination letter, contacting Alcor to make a settlement proposal, obtaining an extension and filing an evidentiary supplement with the FWHRC, advocating your position with opposing counsel, sending a letter to opposing counsel requesting preservation of documents and requesting a settlement, drafting a lawsuit, and pushing opposing counsel towards a mediation. Dissatisfaction with the quality of services states a claim for malpractice, and does not necessarily constitute a violation of the Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct.

I know that you are also unhappy that you did not get an opportunity to appeal the dismissal to the Board of Disciplinary Appeals. However, as I told you, the Texas Rules of Disciplinary Procedure do not provide an appeal from this type of decision of the grievance panel. Because I also have not been able to find a mechanism by which the decision may be reconsidered, this matter has been closed.

Thank you nonetheless for seeking this explanation for the dismissal. Please be assured your voice and concerns have been heard.

Dear Mr. Smith:

At your request, I have conducted an investigation into the processing of your complaint against Mr. Schwartz. In my investigation, I reviewed materials from the file and spoke with the staff who were involved in the processing.

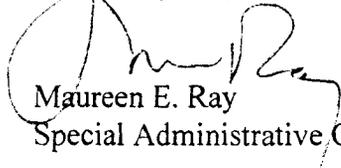

As you know, a panel of the local grievance committee dismissed your complaint on January 11 of this year. It did so because it did not find sufficient evidence of professional misconduct on which to proceed.

Upon reviewing materials from the file, I can tell you that Mr. Schwartz's response was persuasive that he returned your file to you. There does not appear to be consistent, credible evidence in the submissions that Mr. Schwartz conspired with the State of Texas against you. The contract in the matter is for legal work in support of your claims and does not reference any particular cause numbers.

Mr. Smith, I have tried my best to provide information to you concerning why the complaint was dismissed. Because there is no appeal from a decision of the grievance panel, and I have not found a mechanism by which it may be reconsidered, this matter has been closed.

Thank you nonetheless for seeking this information. Please be assured that your voice and concerns have been heard.

Re: #H0091133773 Danny Smith – Kathleen Esquivel
#H0111134021 Danny Smith – Kathleen Esquivel

Dear Mr. Smith:

As the information resource officer for the disciplinary system, your letter to past president of the State Bar Roland Johnson was forwarded to me for a response. In order to educate myself about your grievances against Ms. Esquivel, I have reviewed materials from those files.

As you state to past president Johnson, both grievances were dismissed during classification last year. The classification attorney Mr. Leuty dismissed your first grievance because he determined that it did not contain an allegation of a violation of the Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct. He dismissed your second grievance because he found that you had not submitted new evidence related to an allegation of a violation. Use of the word "Inquiry" in the notice letter you received from Mr. Leuty is a designation used to connote a grievance dismissed during classification.

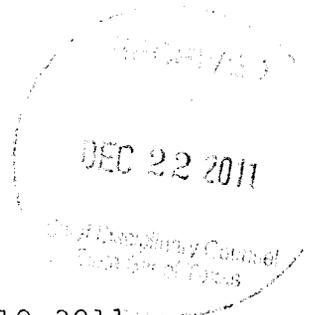

After reviewing materials from the file, it appears that no allegation was found because Ms. Esquivel's statement that she was "reoffer[ing] evidence from the guilt/innocence phase" did not necessarily show an intent to mislead the court. Also, the Affidavit you submitted contains a handwritten notation that it had been received; if a portion of the right edge of the document was not readable it would have been incumbent upon the defense to request another copy.

As you were notified, you had the opportunity to appeal the initial dismissal to the Board of Disciplinary Appeals. To date, I do not show that you availed yourself of this opportunity. Accordingly, in the absence of an appeal, these matters have been closed; and, under the rules, may not be reconsidered.

Thank you nonetheless for pursuing additional information about the dismissals.

Yours very truly,
Maureen E. Ray

Re: Grievance #H0111134021, with a prior Case No.H0091133773.

Mr Johnson,

I filed a grievance against State Attorney Kathleen Esquivel, Case No.H0091133773 and your disciplinary office dismissed it as an inquiry. A notice of this dismissal was mailed to me, with this notice was an option to amend my grievance and refile it, in which I responded accordingly. My amended grievance was given a new Case No.H0111134021 and was dismissed based upon the predicate disposition of no new additional information.

What additional information is needed?

My complaints are styled very clear with 1) the actual alledged misconduct bolded in dark lettering, 2) a brief expression describing the event's, 3) presented material trial documentation that I proved my claims with, and 4) cited your rules that were violated. These proven violations substantially harmed my civil liberties via an illegal conviction and statutory unauthorized sentence.

This is not an inquiry. There is nothing to search out through an inquiry. It's all right there before the Counsel, save only the complained of attorney's response and my redress of her response. Both of which can only be presented upon the counsel's orders.

Where have I faulted in my complaint?

It was stated in their dismissal notice that misconduct was not demonstrated. Is lying to a tribunal on record in open court to obtain a conviction not misconduct?

It is my prayer that you Mr Johnson will weigh out the context of my complaint and not dismiss me based upon the formality or style of my complaint as I am uneducated and unskilled in the drafting of formal complaints.

Please have a response requested from the complained of attorney, and I pray for a fair opportunity to redress her response, and 'then' Mr Johnson have a disposition of my complaint weighed out.

Danny Ray Smith, 12-10-11
Respectfully Requested
Danny Ray Smith

It has been only 3 years since Tom Bennett discovered the misconduct of Terry Jacobson. The statute of limitation on grievances is section 15.06, Texas Rules of Disciplinary Procedure states the limitations period is 4 years. It then states that limitations will not begin to run where fraud or concealment is involved until the Professional Misconduct is discovered or should have been discovered with reasonable diligence by the Complainant.

It has been only 3 years since Tom Bennett discovered the misconduct of Terry Jacobson. The statute of limitation on grievances is section 15.06, Texas Rules of Disciplinary Procedure states the limitations period is 4 years. It then states that limitations will not begin to run where fraud or concealment is involved until the Professional Misconduct is discovered or should have been discovered with reasonable diligence by the Complainant.
