My husband and I both filed a grievance separately. I appealed mine with the bar. I was devastated by the first review and even more after speaking with the individual who reviewed it. This individual in my opinion did not meet or have knowledge to review my concerns. I read the laws and deemed my being a person of interest daughter of the deceased the court was suppose to take into consideration the facts presented. The court did not and the attorney never tried to resolve or improve. In seeing him in court or the few times over his action in probate he did not respond in full by email or calls. He ignored and he gets to walk away leaving carnage in his wake. You bet I do not see the organization as a fair and balanced process. I did not attempt to contact the 2nd party as I felt the system rigged. I find it strange that the staff only uses their initials when sending out the generic letter and no bar number or telephone. Secret throughout.

I do not expect to change the outcome of the probate I expected the bar to act on our laws because the court and staff did not and especially the attorney. I looked at the bar as the gate keeper but I was wrong.

Subject: RE: Grievance staff

Anytime someone files a grievance against an attorney, it is logged into our system, even if the grievance is ultimately dismissed. That way, we know if multiple people have filed grievances against attorneys. We do have several entities that oversee us. For example, we are overseen by the Texas Supreme Court, as well as the Grievance Oversight Committee and the State Bar's Discipline and Client Attorney Assistance Program Committee. We also frequently must answer to the legislature, such as during this most recent Sunset process. So we have quite a bit of oversight.

Regarding the public, we have public members on all of our grievance committees, as well as the above-referenced committees. Our client, the Commission for Lawyer Discipline, has several public members on it. Our public members are often the most vocal and opinionated of the bunch, and we wouldn't have it any other way!

I definitely understand what you're saying, though. There is definitely an argument to be made that our disciplinary process should not be confidential at all, but that is set by statute. In order to change that would need to be voted upon and enacted. As public affairs counsel I try to make up for that by being as open as possible regarding the process in general. I understand it can be very confusing.

Is this regarding a specific matter? You don't have to tell me why you're asking these questions, as you are entitled to ask. I just want to make sure I'm helping you in whatever way I can.

Do you look at previous complaints on the same attorney? A pattern could be happening and it eludes the public right to know and does the Texas Bar bring a review internally? Just because a tenured attorney appears to be experienced does not mean their values could not have changed and the private sector suffers. I am a proud Texan but I see this organization serving the attorney over the public. There is nothing that gives the public any idea that someone complained even if no actions were taken. The public does not get to review the attorney response and of course unsubstantiated to dispute by the public. This appears to be one sided in scope and unfair.

The employee attorneys that work for the Chief Disciplinary Counsel have varying backgrounds. I know throughout the years we've had attorneys that previously worked for the Texas Attorney General, some that were prosecutors in the District Attorney's office, some that had backgrounds as civil attorneys, etc. The classification attorneys, who conduct the initial review of grievances, have to know and understand the Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct, which is the code that our office enforces. Anyone that is employed by our office has to go through an application and interview process, and then extensive training, just like with any other job.

BODA interacts with us in two ways: When a complainant files a grievance and that grievance is dismissed by us at the initial stage, the complainant can file an appeal with BODA. BODA will then determine whether they agree or disagree with that dismissal. The second way is that once a disciplinary matter has been litigated, either our office or the attorney that was being prosecuted can appeal to BODA. BODA acts like a court of appeals for the process.

Regarding your questions about numbers, this past fiscal year (which was June 1, 2016 through May 31, 2017), we had 7,760 grievances filed with our office and we went forward with 2,383.

Ms Mock,

I assume classification attorneys are civil, probate etc. However do employees have experience in particular fields and have working backgrounds in a particular area? Another question if an appeal is made to the State Bar then BODA would still be an option? Is there a public record on how many cases come in and dismissed or proceed. Do all State Bar employees show on record as employees or can anyone just show an approved/authorized to practice law?

Subject: RE: Grievance staff

The short answer is that it depends on what stage you're talking about.

Here is the long answer: The initial screening process is done by the classification attorneys, who are employees. If a grievance is dismissed and the complainant wants to appeal that, it is reviewed by the Board of Disciplinary Appeals, which is made up of volunteers. BODA can then either uphold the dismissal or reverse the dismissal. If the dismissal is reversed (or if we never dismissed it to begin with) the grievance enters the second stage, in which our employee attorneys and investigators conduct a more comprehensive investigation. They then decide whether there is just cause to proceed to litigation or whether the matter should be dismissed. If they decide to dismiss it, they have to present it to a summary disposition panel, which is composed of volunteers (some attorneys and some non-attorneys) from that district's grievance committee. Just like with BODA, the SDP can either uphold our office's dismissal or remand it back to us to proceed to litigation. Once it enters the litigation stage, our client, the Commission for Lawyer Discipline, makes the decision on how to proceed from that point forward. The Commission for Lawyer Discipline is composed of volunteer attorneys and non-attorneys. They will decide whether to settle or go to trial and what type of sanction to seek. If we go to trial, the trial is before either a judge or jury in district court or before a panel of volunteer attorneys and non-attorneys from that district's grievance committee members.

As you can see, it's a process that involves both staff employees and volunteers throughout.

I hope that answers your questions. If not, I'm more than happy to provide you with any additional information. 😊

Ms. Clore,

I am not involved in the grievance process, but I will do my best to answer your question.

When a grievance is received by the Chief Disciplinary Counsel (CDC), it is reviewed by an attorney in the CDC's staff to determine whether, on its face, it alleges professional misconduct. If so, it is classified as a formal complaint and proceeds through the process of investigation and hearing. The hearing will be conducted by a grievance panel (consisting of volunteer attorneys and public members), or by a judge in district court.

Subject: FW: For Linda Acevedo -- Wilken Complaint Response to Letter from D. Grosz

Ms. Axelrod:

Your complaint was forwarded to me, as I typically handle these matters. I reviewed your correspondence as well as the underlying grievance. It appears that your dissatisfaction is based on two issues: (1) that the Chairman of the Grievance Committee and the General Counsel of the State Bar of Texas were not notified of your grievance against Mr. Wilken; and (2) that you believe that our office should have proceeded with a disciplinary matter against Mr. Wilken.

Let me say first, that I completely understand your frustration. If I had been treated the way you say that Mr. Wilken treated you, I would be very upset. I think anyone would be upset. However, that doesn't mean that our office is in a position to discipline Mr. Wilken.

Regarding the first point, these rules were written when our office was structured differently. We no longer have a "Chairman of the Grievance Committee" or a "General Counsel." Linda Acevedo, who is the Chief Disciplinary Counsel, would be the current equivalent, and as you know, she is aware of your grievance against Mr. Wilken.

As to the second point, we completely agree that the rules state that Mr. Wilken, in holding a Temporary Trial Card, subjected himself to the grievance procedures of the State Bar of Texas. From a practical standpoint, however, it is not that simple. Any sanctions sought by our office against Texas attorneys must be tied to the attorney's professional license. Mr. Wilken does not have a license to practice law in Texas. He has a Temporary Trial Card, which is a certification allowing a qualified law student to appear in court under the supervision of a qualified, licensed attorney. The rules themselves state that the Dean of the law school, who we notified of your grievance, has the authority to terminate the certification.

I want to reiterate that I understand why you are upset. But there is nothing we could do to Mr. Wilken, given that he doesn't have a license to practice law. We can't seek to suspend him or disbar him, because one needs a license to be suspended or disbarred. At this point, I am quite sure that the Dean of his law school will handle this matter appropriately.

Please let me know if you have any additional questions.

Subject: For Linda Acevedo -- Wilken Complaint Response to Letter from D. Grosz

Ms. Acevedo,

I am writing in response to the letter I received from D. Grosz, Assistant Disciplinary Counsel, RE: 201706446 – Robyn Axelrod – David Wilken, dated November 21, 2017. A copy of the letter is attached hereto as Exhibit “A”. The letter states that the complaint against Mr. David Wilken was dismissed because Mr. Wilken, as a third-year bar card holder, is not subject to discipline by the Texas State Bar.[1]

I’m confused by this determination because the very rules referenced by D. Grosz, the “Rules and Regulations Governing the Participation of Qualified Law Students and Qualified Unlicensed Law School Graduates in the Trial of Cases in Texas,” (“Temporary Trial Card Rules”) specifically subject Temporary Trial Card holders to the Texas State Bar’s grievance process.

Mr Wilken’s notarized application, dated August 8, 2017, swears, in compliance with the Temporary Trial Card Rules, certifies, and declares that

- (1) he read and was familiar with the Code of Professional Responsibility of the State Bar of Texas (more formally called the Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct); and
- (2) that he will abide by the same in the activities permitted by the Temporary Trial Card Rules; and
- (3) that he subjects himself to the Grievance Procedures of the State Bar of Texas.

A copy of Mr. Wilken’s notarized application is attached hereto as Exhibit “B”. [2]

The Temporary Trial Card rules contemplate grievances and require some of the actions D. Grosz appears to have taken by way of the November 21, 2017 letter. Article VII, Grievance, states

In the event a grievance is filed in a case in which a qualified law student or a qualified unlicensed law school graduate has participated under these rules, the chairman of the grievance committee with whom such grievance is filed shall immediately report the same to the dean of the student's or graduate's law school, the supervising attorney, and the General Counsel of the State Bar of Texas.

Some of the required parties were not notified (the Chairman of the Grievance Committee and the General Counsel of the State Bar of Texas, for example) and the notification of the others, Dean Joseph Harroz, Jr. and Ms. Katie McVaney, seems to conflict with the dismissal of the grievance in that such notifications would not be required if a Temporary Trial Card holder was not subject to the grievance process.

The letter references Mr. Wilken as "working under supervision" but, during the events that gave rise to the complaint on October 24, 2017, Mr. Wilken was not working under the supervision of any of the four attorneys approved by the Texas Bar to supervise him. Mr. Wilken appeared at a Court-ordered Pre-Trial Conference without his supervisor as required under Article IV(A)(1) of the Temporary Trial Card Rules.

In light of the above, I hereby request that my complaint against Mr. Wilken be reinstated and that it receive full consideration under the grievance process available to aggrieved members of the public – the same process Mr. Wilken voluntarily subjected himself when he applied to become a Temporary Trial Card holder. A copy of the complaint and supplements are attached hereto at Exhibit "C".

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at robyn@axelrod.us.

Sincerely,

Robyn Axelrod

Dear Ms. Axelrod:

The Office of the Chief Disciplinary Counsel of the State Bar of Texas has received your grievance against the above named lawyer. Respondent was not a licensed attorney at the time of the alleged misconduct but, instead, was working under supervision with a third-year bar card. As such, Respondent is not subject to discipline for any alleged misconduct and the grievance is dismissed. However, pursuant to the "Rules and Regulations Governing the Participation of Qualified Law Students and Qualified Unlicensed Law School Graduates in the Trial of Cases in Texas," our office is reporting this matter to the Dean of Respondent's law school, Respondent's supervisor, and the Board of Law Examiners.

In compliance with the Texas Rules of Disciplinary Procedure, the Office of the Chief Disciplinary Counsel maintains confidentiality throughout the grievance process.

IV. Information About Your Grievance - Continued

Mr. Wilken is known to me as the District Attorney who met with me on October 24, 2017 for a pending matter before the Justice of the Peace Court in Precinct 3 of Hays County, Texas. At the meeting, Mr. Wilken mocked me for choosing to exercise my Constitutional right to represent myself over a speeding ticket. Mr. Wilken laughed when I told him I was going to proceed pro se. Mr. Wilken, at that time, held himself out as being an attorney. Mr. Wilken's disdain for my choosing to exercise my Constitutional right caused me to look him up on the Texas State Bar's website. At that time, I could not find a record of Mr. Wilken being a licensed Texas attorney. After further research, I came to understand that Mr. Wilken has a Temporary Trial Card and that the attorney with him yesterday, Mr. Kyle Smith, was not one of the four attorneys authorized by the Texas Bar to supervise Mr. Wilken. The Chief of the Hays County District Attorney's Misdemeanor Division, Ms. Katie McVane, is the attorney on staff who is approved to supervise Mr. Wilken. Exacerbating matters, Mr. Wilken holds himself out as an Assistant Criminal District Attorney for Hays County on his LinkedIn profile, just as he did during our personal interaction. Further, the Hays County District Attorney's website lists Mr. Wilken as an Assistant Criminal District Attorney. Copies of Mr. Wilken's LinkedIn profile and the Hays County District Attorney website are attached. Texas Government Code, Section 41.103, Assistant Prosecuting Attorney, states (a) An assistant prosecuting attorney must be licensed to practice law in this state and shall take the constitutional oath of office. (b) An assistant prosecuting attorney may perform all duties imposed by law on the prosecuting attorney. As the holder of a Texas Bar Temporary Trial Card, and an applicant for admission to the Texas Bar awaiting results of the Bar Exam, Mr. Wilken is neither an attorney nor is he properly employed as an Assistant Criminal District Attorney. That Mr. Wilken would misrepresent himself as an attorney during a pre-trial conference, and to the world on the largest business oriented social media platform, LinkedIn, calls into question Mr. Wilken's character and fitness for the Bar. Mr. Wilken, knowingly expropriating a position of public trust, in violation of ethical and statutory requirements, evidences a lack of the requisite character and fitness necessary to engage in the practice of law.

RE: Supplement to Bar Complaint Regarding Mr. David Wilken

Dear Chief Disciplinary Counsel,

I am writing to supplement my complaint of October 25, 2017.

On October 24, 2017, Mr. Wilken held Pre-Trial Conferences with me and at least four other defendants where he agreed to plea deals with one or more of the defendants. As an unlicensed law-school graduate and holder of a Temporary Trial Card, Mr. Wilken does not have the authority to bind the State to any agreements made during the Pre-Trial Conferences.

During our Pre-Trial Conference, Mr. Wilken held himself out to be a District Attorney and his attempts to mock me were deliberate acts designed to intimidate and otherwise cause me to capitulate to the weight of the State. Mr. Wilken laughed at my stated intent to proceed pro se, and he said he would object to anything I tried to do since, he said, I would be going up against him, an attorney. In other words, Mr. Wilken misrepresented himself, misrepresented his authority, engaged in abuse of process, threatened other abuses of process, all in the name, and hearkening to the authority of, the State. In so doing, Mr. Wilken violated Texas Penal Code, Section 37.11, which states, in relevant part

(a) A person commits an offense if he:

(1) impersonates a public servant with intent to induce another to submit to his pretended official authority or to rely on his pretended official acts;

(b) An offense under this section is a felony of the third degree.

Mr. Wilken, in his application for a Temporary Trial Card, subjected himself to compliance with the Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct ("Disciplinary Rules") and the Rules and Regulations Governing Participation of Qualified Unlicensed Law School Graduates in the Trial of Cases in Texas ("Temporary Trial Regulations").

Mr. Wilken violated Section IV of the Temporary Trial Regulations, which states, in relevant part:

(1) The qualified law student or the qualified unlicensed law school graduate must be accompanied at his/her appearance in the following matters by a supervising attorney, qualified under Section V. herein, who is duly licensed to practice law in the State of Texas:

(a) Appearance for the purposes of trial of civil or criminal matters;

The only attorney in the Hays County District Attorney's Office qualified to supervise Mr. Wilken under Section V. is Ms. Katie McVaney. Ms. McVaney did not appear with Mr. Wilken at the Pre-Trial Conference.

Mr. Wilken's deliberate misconduct violates several requirements contained in the Disciplinary Rules, which, Mr. Wilken, again, agreed to observe as a condition to receiving and maintaining his Temporary Trial Card:

Rules 4.01 and 8.04(a)(3) (by falsely claiming to be an attorney and misrepresenting himself as a District Attorney to me in person, online in social media, and on the official Hays County District Attorney Misdemeanor Division web page (and mis-utilizing public resources and instrumentalities to so misrepresent himself on this official web page).

Rule 8.04(a)(1) (by violating the Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct in and of themselves).

Rule 8.04(a)(2) (by impersonating a public servant, a third degree felony under Texas Penal Code §37.11).

Rule 8.04(a)(12) (by acting as an Assistant Prosecuting Attorney when he does not meet the statutory qualifications to hold such a position of public trust). See Texas Government Code, §41.103(a).

I reported Mr. Wilken's misconduct to District Attorney Wes Mau. In response, Mr. Wilken immediately removed from public view his LinkedIn profile, in which Mr. Wilken falsely held himself out to the world to be a Hays County Assistant District Attorney. Mr. Wilken's deletion of his LinkedIn profile in response to my stated concerns indicates that Mr. Wilken understands that he has violated the Penal Code, the Disciplinary Rules, and the Temporary Trial Regulations. RE: Second Supplement to Bar Complaint Regarding Mr. David Wilken

Dear Chief Disciplinary Counsel,

I am writing to submit this second supplement my complaint of October 25, 2017. Mr. Wilken's prior and continued misconduct baffles me. Despite having knowledge of my complaint, Mr. Wilken continues to hold himself out as an Assistant District Attorney on his LinkedIn profile (it had previously been removed but it has since been put back up where only LinkedIn members can see it). A printout of Mr. Wilken's most recent LinkedIn social media profile is attached.

Mr. Wilken's misconduct violates Tex. Penal Code, Section 38.11, Falsely Holding Oneself Out As A Lawyer. Section 38.11 states:

(a) A person commits an offense if, with intent to obtain an economic benefit for himself or herself, the person holds himself or herself out as a lawyer, unless he or she is currently licensed to practice law in this state, another state, or a foreign country and is in good standing with the State Bar of Texas and the state bar or licensing authority of any and all other states and foreign countries where licensed.

(b) An offense under Subsection (a) of this section is a felony of the third degree.

(c) Final conviction of falsely holding oneself out to be a lawyer is a serious crime for all purposes and acts, specifically including the State Bar Rules.

Mr. Wilken receives, and continues to receive an economic benefit from Hays County taxpayers by way of being paid by Hays County as an Assistant Prosecuting Attorney.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at robyn@axelrod.us.

Sincerely,

Robyn Axelrod

The ruling that limits the time span for filing to on an attorney is too short since it is not always known of the violations until later in the appeal process that the mistakes are discovered or to get your file is delayed.
14. Do you have any suggestions for improving the grievance system?
Each case needs to be reviewed separately when it comes down to how long it took to discover the mistakes that the attorney made and the fees dispute should not be affected by the 4 yr. time limit. The Board of Disciplinary Appeals even stated that the fee dispute should be addressed.

If I knew a long time ago to go to college and get a degree to become a legal crook with a degree to take advantage of innocent people then wow it would be worth it. Sad :-

To whom it concerns.

Of course I want to speak up in regards to how my grievance was handled throw the State Bar. Just total dissapointment. Proves no matter how we as innocent people get treated by an unjust System. We reached out for help and protection to this Law Office. Gave up my Savings for help only to never meet my Attorney and for them to just quit and cost me years of hardships to just go down the drain. Her career goes on to do this to others. I know have to suffer the consequences of her lack of care and concern for her client. And left me to broke to re hire a new lawyer to help clean up the mess. Which is 2x worse then what it was. Thanks for nothing. The least you could of done was got me a Refund to re hire some one to help me with my Custody issue. Goes to show it takes a Judge not the State Bar what a waste of time

The evidence that I presented was from official trial transcripts and the panel that reviewed the evidence concluded that the criminal behavior by the respondent lawyer were acceptable thus glorifying the lawyer's behavior.

14. Maybe if you would get the supreme court /state legislature to appoint a panel for each different ethnic group . I would recommend a Mexican panel for Mexican Americans, an Anglo/White panel for all English, German, Russians, an African American panel for African Americans and an oriental panel for oriental people. As a safeguard one at large/misc panel for any group that is too small to have its own or make any difference.
This will eliminate any peer pressure off you.

It caters to a one-sided system. Though I was found guilty due to attorneys' advice & performance there are things in my file which prove my innocence. But Henry Hanes wish not to hand them over because it proves his ineffectiveness.
14. Do you have any suggestions for improving the grievance system?
Implement exonerated individuals on the panel and into Congress and Disciplinary Council to create a fair balance to not only the Justice System but also the grievance system.

I am perplexed as to why this lawyer can get away with harassment, trespassing, adding my parents that have nothing to do with the case five years later? His list of violations are never ending and it's quite alarming that he is allowed to treat people like he does.

13. Do you believe the grievance system is fair? ☒ YES ☐ NO
 - a. If you answered no, why do you think the system is unfair?

When you put your effort, finances in getting the best defense possible, to protect you - your lawyer knows people there who portray here as fair -

14. Do you have any suggestions for improving the grievance system?

Important that I can stand in front of the disciplinary committee, as a human/person be heard - this lawyer agreed to diligently represent me & the law & get the fact/evidence. Instead the papers are processed: The scare tactic to get more money from you/family & then, make you like you don't deserve that degree of effort. She promised to put forth: But yet she gets it thru the Chief Disciplinary Council - We'd like you Glynnis as a lawyer to talk to witnesses who made themselves available time & time again

13. Do you believe the grievance system is fair? ☐ YES ☒ NO
 - a. If you answered no, why do you think the system is unfair?
BECAUSE I paid my attorney to request what I wanted and he ignored what I was paying him for.

14. Do you have any suggestions for improving the grievance system?
YES, when ONE pays an attorney to do or fight and request what ONE is asking for, they should do it for sure. Can't, if they take your money and NOT do what they say they are going to do, then they should be held accountable.

14. Do you have any suggestions for improving the grievance system?
Yes, Follow the State Bar Rules; Especially when the Rule 1.15 states upon termination lawyer-client, the lawyer is to release all papers to the client. The State Bar are clearly breaking their own rule by not allowing the attorney to release papers to the client upon termination.

 - A. If your grievance was dismissed, did you appeal? Yes
 - B. Did BODA reverse the dismissal? No
3. Did your grievance result in a sanction against the respondent lawyer? No
4. Was your grievance heard by: AN EVIDENTIARY PANEL
5. If your complaint was heard by an evidentiary panel, how would you describe your treatment by the evidentiary panel?

I would describe the treatment as Unjust, Not Accurate and like it never really happened. As if it is just a waste of time to make the Petitioner feel as if something is really getting done or reviewed.
6. How long did it take to reach a conclusion about your grievance? 180-260 Days
7. Did your grievance involve a: CIVIL MATTER
8. If your matter was criminal in nature, was your attorney: ____Appointed ____Hired N/A
9. If your matter was criminal in nature, did you receive a sentence that included jail or penitentiary time? ____Yes ____No N/A
10. Which regional office of the chief disciplinary counsel's office processed your grievance?
San Antonio
11. Did you ever talk with an employee of the regional office? Yes
 - A. If so, did you talk with: Administrative Attorney
 - B. What were the names of the employees that you spoke with? Troy Garcia
12. How would you describe your treatment by whomever you talked with?
Excellent & Professional

13. Do you believe the grievance system is fair? NO

A. If you answered no, why do you think the system is unfair?

The system is unfair because it uses a panel of attorneys to judge another attorney and although I know it may be due to the fellow attorneys knowing the laws, it still does not create for a fair review of the case. The corruption in the law system is great and I am greatly saddened by it. I prayed this would be fair but I clearly see even with the Respondent attorney contract stating he could hire help at no extra cost to the client, the panel still covers for the corruption so that they may all benefit from chapter IV the friend of the court as so stated in the decree. It is unfair because many thousand Fathers are out fighting to see and be in their children's lives, fighting a system that makes it so hard for them and yet they are still having to get put through this process fighting once again a corrupt system while already in a very difficult and emotional time in their lives only to not get anywhere on either matter and now with less funds, time, resources. It is unfair to the point that respondent attorney straight up told me "he didn't care who I complained to" and further straight up lied to the Panel with little or no evidence as far as I was made aware of. Now I see why he so confidently stated he didn't care who I complained to.

14. Do you have any suggestions for improving the grievance system?

One thing I believe may help is to have the Evidentiary Panel arrange a phone conversation with the Petitioner and the Respondent, not necessarily at the same time as I understand this may lead to time consuming arguments on an already time-consuming process with what I'm sure has many hundreds of complaints already. Another thing that may help would be cutting down the time given for a response or answer back to the complaint. I for one see this as an important matter and moved on it the very next day even overnighting correspondence. The attorney on the other hand made sure to take the full amount of time allotted to answer back. I understand they have their cases and trails to take care of however we as well have our lives to live amid all this. Perhaps the most important thing I can recommend to help make improvements to the grievance system would be to ask that the complaints are actually heard in full, reviewed thoroughly and corrupt attorneys actually be held accountable for their actions instead of giving them the power to laugh in their clients face and abuse their knowledge to take advantage of people who are already in a difficult and emotional situation where the odds are against them.

From! Jason Wayne McBride
TDW-10#02139484
George Betto Unit
1391 FM 3328
Tennessee Colony Tx. 75880

I want more investigations into neglect, malpractice and misconduct! I'm pissed off and my handwriting becomes real sloppy. Sorry idiots!

I want info on Pro Bono Attorney and membership files on C. Wayne Huff and Eric Shay Rosen. Admin. Troy Garcia in San Antonio office wouldn't send them. I also want this filed with the First Court of Appeals for consideration for Court of Appeals #01-17-00528-CR

First off I was notified by letter Nov. 3 2017 that my grievance against Eric Shay Rosen, State Bar # 17262100, Grievance # 201701273, had been dismissed on Sept. 19, 2017, while at George Beto Unit. Even to this day Mr. Rosen never submitted letters I gave him in to evidence in my trial which is an obstruction of justice. Mr. Rosen stated in a letter to the state Bar that he gave me these letters. Not true. I wouldn't be complaining and second I wanted them submitted as evidence in my trial. I also could not take them back to the county since the Sheriff prohibited me from having the letters in my possession or else they would have had to have been placed in my property in the safe at Comal County Jail. There's no record of this thus proving Eric Rosen lied and withheld evidence. Next my charge of continuous family violence cannot be used with multiple counts that involve the same victim. Penal Code 25.11 states this. Counts 2-5 of CR 2016-008 are apart of count 1. The convictions of counts 2-5 with count 1 violated my double jeopardy rights. See Ellison v. State (App. 14 Dist. 2014) 425 SW3d 637; Shelby v. State (Cr. App. 2014) 448 S.W. 3d 431; Ex parte Denton 399 SW3d 540 (Tex. Crim. App. 2013); Ex parte Jefferson 681 SW2d 33 (Tex. Crim. App. 1984) the 1st goes on. Then I never got my docket call before trial. A defendant must also be present. In addition if the above is a Jury Trial setting, all parties are required to be present at 9:00 am the Tuesday Prior to the Jury date for announcements and all final pre-trial motions. See Code of Criminal Procedure Art. 28.01. My damn attorney Eric Rosen never showed up to court and I wasn't present. If an investigation had been done this would have been exposed. This is a due process violation also. The Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution prohibits a person from being tried twice for the same offense. Accordingly when a not guilty verdict is rendered the defendant is no longer subject to prosecution for that crime or any other offense containing the same elements. Blockburger v. U.S. - 284 U.S. 299 (1932) Also known as Blockburger Test. So since I was found Not Guilty of count 3 and it is an element of count 1 and count 1 is a combination of 2 or more family violences within a 12 month period and is an element of all my counts from count 1-5 I should have been acquitted of all of those counts. See Ex parte Jefferson again as above in double jeopardy. Also see Code of Criminal Procedure Article 28.13, 37.08 and 37.09. As a rule of thumb if one offense is a lesser included offense of another the double jeopardy prohibition bars a conviction of both crimes. Thanks to this dumbass Eric Shay Rosen I'm in prison when I shouldn't be. When my conviction is overturned I'm suing the State Bar. You people make me sick. I have been trying to get a hold of my appellate attorney Wayne Huff to fire his ass because he don't respond to my letters. A violation to standard for appellate conduct Lawyers duties to clients #8. I want the main head honcho of the State Bar to contact me asap!
