Meeting with Grievance Oversight Committee (GOC). She, Ron Bunch, and James Ehler met with GOC on October 26th. Two new members of the GOC, Catherine Wiley and Robert Alcorn were introduced and the primary topics covered included the Commission's Annual Report and training of local grievance committee members.

Public Information Act (PIA) Requests. A follow-up report was provided regarding the three recent public information requests previously reported on in September that involve information believed to be exempt from the statute and for which an Attorney General Opinion was sought to resolve the issue. The AG ruled in the Bar's favor that documents maintained by the Chief Disciplinary Counsel on behalf of the Commission for Lawyer Discipline are not subject to the PIA.

Suit against the Commission. A litigation matter filed in Houston against the Commission was resolved favorably with a Plea to the Jurisdiction.

Outreach in the Valley. As a follow-up to the discussion at the Commission's September meeting, contact has been made with former State Bar President Eduardo Rodriguez about developing a program in the Valley aimed at reaching out to educate the public and attorneys about ethics and the attorney discipline system.

2012-2013 Budget Proposal. The preliminary budget meeting with the Bar's Budget Committee at which each department of the Bar presents its budget proposal for the upcoming year was held yesterday. There were no concerns raised about the proposed budget for the discipline system. The final budget meeting is scheduled for December 3rd.

Unauthorized Practice of Law Committee (UPLC). The Office of Chief Disciplinary Counsel serves as liaison to the Texas Supreme Court's UPLC and provides administrative support to the Committee. Ms. Acevedo advised that she attends its quarterly meetings, and reported on the most recent meeting held last Saturday.

Case Management System. Due to data conversion issues, the implementation of the New Dawn software to replace of the 20-year-old WinVantage database and case tracking system is delayed one month, and is now scheduled to take place the first week of December.

James Ehler introduced Assistants Disciplinary Counsel Stephanie Strolle, Paul Homburg, and Marie Haspil and noted that George Smith and Troy Garcia are in Odessa handling a disciplinary case today. He advised that Stephanie is lead counsel and Paul is second chair in disciplinary matters involving Theresa Caballero and Stuart Leeds in El Paso.

Re: #H0081235548 Daniel Battaglia – Rupert Horka

Dear Mr. Battaglia:

As promised, I have conducted an investigation into the processing of your complaint against Mr. Horka. In so doing, I have reviewed materials from the file, and spoken with members of the staff who were involved in the processing.

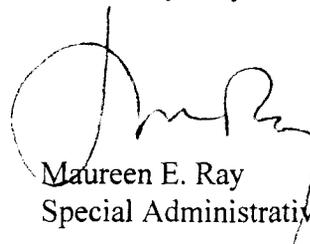

As you know, a panel of the local grievance committee dismissed your complaint on January 24, 2013. It did so because it found insufficient evidence of professional misconduct on which to proceed.

From my review of materials from the file, I can tell you that Mr. Horka's response was persuasive that the agreement in your matter was a flat fee for an uncontested divorce, and that later your matter became contested. Additionally, given work performed in the matter and Mr. Horka's billing rate, it appeared that the fee you paid may have been fully earned. Given these factors, it is very unlikely that an evidentiary panel would have found misconduct.

In this letter, I have tried my best to impart the reasons why your complaint was dismissed. Because the procedural rules do not provide for an appeal of the panel's decision, and I have found no mechanism by which decisions of this type may be reconsidered, this matter has been closed.

Thank you nonetheless for seeking this review. Please be assured that your voice and concerns have been heard.

Yours very truly,

#D0111247066 Michael Berry – Vale Krenik

Dear Mr. Berry:

As the information resource officer for the disciplinary system, your call to the executive department and your faxes to Linda Acevedo and Laura Popps were referred to me for a response. I have reviewed the procedural status of your above grievances against Mr. Krenik, and have discussed it with Ms. Popps.

As you know, your first grievance was dismissed on October 30 of last year, because it was deemed not to contain an allegation of a violation of the Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct. You filed an amended grievance on November 13 which was again dismissed during classification. You have appealed this dismissal to the Board of Disciplinary Appeals (BODA). BODA has not yet decided your appeal.

Please be advised that no other entity but BODA has the authority to overturn a classification dismissal. BODA is comprised of 12 attorneys appointed by the supreme court, and is separate from this office. Accordingly, you have availed yourself of the opportunity under the rules to have a full review of your grievance.

In the meantime, we ask your patience with the process. Please be assured that your voice and concerns have been heard.

Yours very truly,

Comments

Attached you will find a letter address to you last year and a letter to Mr. Nowlin. I have tried to speak with you and Mr. Nowlin regarding the status of my Appeal!!!

I received a letter from Mr. Nowlin several weeks ago and sent him several subsequent faxes. Since I have not been successful in having a civil conversation with Mr. Nowlin in the past and since he refuses to be of any assistance I am now contacting you and your office.

I really want to have a civil line of communication with you and your staff. However, my patience is growing very thin. I felt the only communication I have had with Mr. Nowlin after my first complaint was hastily disposed of, I was left with filling an Appeal.

I have reported to Mr. Nowlin the same information in the attached letters to you to no Avail.

I have mentioned to Mr. Nowlin the HIPPA violations, FEE disputes, and with drawl letter from previous counsel Mr. Krenik.

I at least need to speak with you or someone in your office who can give me answers to the status of my case or direct me to the appropriate offices for resolution of my complaints.

Sincerely

Michael Berry

Re: Appeal of Grievance with investigator David Nowlin

Hello Ms. Poppo sorry to have to contact you under these circumstances but I have no choice. I file a Grievance a couple of month ago against Attorney Vale Alaric Krenik case #D0101246857. Mr. Nowlin the investigator made a hasty decision in his investigation and never contacted me. I am Appealing the dismissal but have not been able to reach anyone regarding the status of my Appeal.

I did receive a letter several weeks ago from Mr. Nowlin (whom I assume is also investigating or working on my Appeal) since his last letter I have sent him additional faxes to no avail. Therefore, I am contacting you today to request you call me at 214-914-3880. I have also sent you previous faxes to Ms. Linda Acevedo. Would one of you or both of you please contact me immediately?

Also, Mr. Krenik has some unresolved complaint concerns which also need to be address. His resignation letter violates the confidential clause of the grievance policy (i.e. Mr. Krenik refers to confidential information released only to the grievance committee in his withdrawal letter.) which makes it impossible to fine new counsel.

- Mr. Krenik has no LEGAL RIGHT TO claim excessive fees or use his position to extort fees Mr. Krenik Never earned because Mr. Krenik never work on my case prior to the grievance complaint.
- Mr. Krenik possess some private and confidential information regarding my medical history related to my case of 3/2.2012 (he has NO legal authorization for) which is a violation of HIPPA.
- I have repeatedly informed Mr. Krenik of the above and he still refuses to send an appropriate withdrawal letter/letter of resignation (the letter also refers to a $10,000.00 lean) which Mr. Krenik is not entitle to and is extremely excessive at best.

Again, please contact me with at least some information on the status of this matter or please provide information as to who else I need to contact immediately.

Sincerely

Michael Berry

Re: #D0120939134 Joe Cooksey – Donald Taylor
#D0111246992 Joe Cooksey – Donald Taylor

Dear Mr. Cooksey:

As promised, I have conducted an investigation into the processing of your grievances against Mr. Taylor. In so doing, I have reviewed materials from the second grievance file, and spoken with members of the staff who were involved in the processing.

As you know, your first grievance was dismissed on December 31, 2009, during the classification process, because it was deemed not to contain an allegation of a violation of the Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct (TDRPC). Your second grievance was also dismissed during classification, on November 9, 2012. You appealed this dismissal to the Board of Disciplinary Appeals, which denied your appeal.

From my review of materials from the file of your second grievance, I can tell you that your assertion that Mr. Taylor had improper ex parte contact with a judge most likely failed to form a basis for a complaint because it did not appear from the information you provided that any contact was made for the purpose of influencing the judge, as the Rule 3.05 of the TDRPC requires. Similarly, your assertion that Mr. Taylor had committed a Rule 3.07 violation failed to meet the requirement that the lawyer know that any extrajudicial statement would “have a substantial likelihood of materially prejudicing an adjudicatory proceeding,” where the information you provided was a newspaper article merely quoting language contained in a public filing.

In this letter, I have my best to impart the reasons why your grievances were dismissed. Because the procedural rules do not provide for a further filing on allegations already considered, and I have found no mechanism by which these decisions may be reconsidered, these matters have been closed.

Thank you nonetheless for seeking this review. Please be assured that your voice and concerns have been heard.

RE: Joe R. Cooksey v. Donald Rudolph Taylor Jr.; D0111246992; BODA Case # 51462

Dear Ms. Ray,

As the State Bar's ombudsman, I am requesting you to investigate and explain in writing specifically why the Office of Chief Disciplinary Counsel and the Board of Disciplinary Appeals rejected my complaint regarding attorney Mr. Rudy Taylor.

Specifically, I provided a reporter's record of a court hearing in which Mr. Taylor admitted he had an ex parte communication with Judge Griffin. Clearly, that communication was not authorized. Furthermore, I provided a copy of a newspaper article where Mr. Taylor in a pretrial publicity stunt, acting as special prosecutor, willingly and intentionally attacked my credibility, character, reputation and commented on my guilt or innocence when he stated "Cooksey broke the law...".

Please explain how this conduct does not violate the rules of conduct.

Respectfully yours,

Joe Cooksey

Re: Your February 5 Letter to the Supreme Court

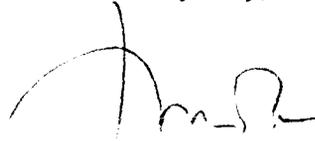

Dear Ms. Hejl:

As information resource officer for the attorney disciplinary system, Mr. Hawthorne forwarded your letter to me for a response. In order to educate myself on the issues you raise in your letter, I have reviewed the processing of your various grievances filed over the course of 2012.

Please be advised that initial screenings of grievances are conducted based on the information provided on the grievance form unless further information is deemed necessary. When a grievance is upgraded to a complaint, the lawyer is notified that he or she may respond in writing within 30 days. The complaint and the response form the basis for a later just cause determination, along with any investigation deemed necessary.

Your grievances have been processed using these procedures. There is no review, appeal, or reconsideration by the supreme court provided for under the Texas Government Code's rules by which the attorney disciplinary system operates.

Alice Hejl

Dallas, TX 75214

Dear Texas Supreme Court,

I have written several complaints to the State Bar of Texas and appeals to the Board of Disciplinary Appeals over the past two years. Most of the complaints were in reference to state lawyers appointed to represent my defense in mental health proceedings. The state lawyers whom I filed complaints on include Randa Holloway Black complaint #D0111247030, Tomi J. Shehan complaint #D0111247029, Jennifer Ann Smith Ellis appeal #D0041245476 and complaint #D0031245141. Additionally, I filed complaints with the State Bar of Texas on attorneys Thao Phuong La complaint #D0051245678, Craig Watkins complaint #D0051245677 and Ted Hejl complaint #D0051245679. However, all the complaints I filed with the State Bar of Texas were dismissed despite my appeal to the Board of Disciplinary Appeals for the reason "this office has determined that the information alleged does not demonstrate professional misconduct or an attorney disability. Accordingly, this grievance has been classified as an Inquiry and has been dismissed." In light of the aforementioned dismissal of my complaints by the State Bar of Texas and the Board of Disciplinary Appeals I am requesting the Texas Supreme Court who has jurisdiction over the aforementioned entities to provide an external review of my complaints. The reason for my request predominates from my dissatisfaction all of my complaints were classified as Inquiries. In fact, I question the rationale of the classification status altogether. An Inquiry or question usually requires a response consistent with the finding of facts. The Board should have communicated in their response the evidence obtained as a result of the Board's discovery and investigative processes. The Board should have been accountable to convey the investigative procedures utilized such as evaluation of medical charts or legal records to determine their decision. Also, the Board should have inquired about the number of times I met with my appointed council and discussions held including a review determining whether I intended but was unable to file any additional legal documentation in the Third Dallas County Probate Court as a result of negligence on behalf of my state appointed council or failure of the Green Oaks Hospital Staff to advocate on my behalf as required by the State Department of Health during the time I was involuntary committed for mental health treatment. The Board should have reviewed whether I had discussed information with my council or my physicians during my involuntary mental health treatment that needed to have been formalized in an affidavit and submitted into the Third Dallas County Probate Court in order to determine if I needed to be released more immediately from involuntary commitment. The board failed to determine my appointed council and physicians were informed I was subjected to faulty, inconsistent, and negligent police protection and adequate documentation by their department for the time preceding my involuntary mental illness treatment. In essence, the Board did not review my ability to receive adequate provision of service from my state appointed council. Thus the Board should have investigated the availability of my council in terms of providing me council and the council's timeframe for responding to the mental health court and the Third Probate Court in Dallas County during the time I was involuntary committed for mental illness treatment. Moreover, neither did the Board communicate with me directly to better determine the issues needing resolution in my complaints after I openly acknowledged their existence. I question how the Board could justify its decision to dismiss my complaints classifying them as inquiries without proper investigations. It would have benefited me along with the taxpayers to have my complaints more thoroughly investigated by the Board in light of the fact most of the complaints I filed were in reference to council members who were appointed to represent me during my involuntary mental illness treatment. Because the Board did not properly evaluate my complaints then how could the state justify the cost of paying the state attorneys who provide my council during my mental illness causes considering I provided complaints to the Board documenting their legal negligence or misconduct? The fact I filed complaints on my state appointed council after the timeframe for my confinement for involuntary mental illness treatment indicated there were unresolved legal issues with regard to how my cases were handled. Additionally, the Board should have been required to communicate how it arrived at the decision my complaints warranted dismissal instead of responding in a matter of fact way the attorneys alleged in my complaints did not participate in any wrong doing. On the contrary, the Board did not propose evidence supporting the decision the attorney's did no wrongdoing. Instead of allowing me the opportunity to appeal my complaints the BODA should not have given me the option to appeal since the State Bar of Texas had already determined my complaints were Dead on Arrival per their Inquiry classification status when I initially filed them. I feel the fact my complaints were dismissed for two years without having an adequate or a thorough investigative process was because the Board was allowed to continually excuse themselves of doing the work required to adequately address my complaints along with other complainants by using the excuse of being overworked voluntary council members. Additionally, although the board members may be extremely knowledgeable, they were quick to dismiss my complaints based on subjective reasoning possibly even due to having a lack of interest in the complaint. In other words the dismissals were not substantive. Finally, I would like to provide additional information to the State Bar of Texas with respect to the complaints I provided on my state appointed council, Ms. Randa Holloway Black #D0111247030 and Tomi Shehan #D0111247029. Neither did Randa nor Tomi officially file with the Third Probate Court in Dallas County a Notice of Appearance Form to validate or authorize them to act on my behalf when I communicated for them to do so after I initially declined their help. Consequently, Tomi Shehan failed to file the paper work provided by my privately hired attorney Elizabeth Higginbotham, even after I communicated to Tomi I wanted her to act on my behalf when I realized my private attorney had not filed a Notice of Appearance (MI-12-01680). It would also benefit the Texas Supreme Court to know after I was released from Green Oaks Hospital for MI-11-02099 I provided information to a woman named Beth Cooke, a privacy officer employed at Green Oaks Hospital conveying the information Green Oaks had in my documentation was not correct and that the physicians and staff members at the Hospital needed to review information from the Dallas Police pertaining to my physical assault. I provided Ms. Cooke with a written letter documenting pertinent information from my history with my parents (physical and verbal assault), uncooperative Dallas Police Department to fully investigate the assault before I was admitted involuntarily for mental illness treatment. Primarily I provided the information to amend the medical and legal record to reflect better the picture of being victimized and the Dallas Police/Dallas County Sheriffs because the physicians, healthcare staff members, patient advocates, social workers, counselors failed to obtain my background history with regard to all the details prior to authorizing my admission for involuntary mental illness treatment. Furthermore, I also provided complaints to the State Commission on Judicial Conduct regarding judicial misconduct and negligence for the way my mental illness causes were handled under complaint #CJC Nos. 12-0685-SP and 12-0686-CC in reference to mental illness causes MI-11-02099 and MI-12-01680. It is necessary the Texas Supreme Court consider using both my legal and judicial complaints including my dismissed Petition of Review in the Texas Supreme Court (12-0558) to better determine the magnitude of the problem the Court will have to handle because it will most likely end in termination of employment, revoking or penalties against licensed legal and medical professionals.

I appreciate the opportunity to submit a request for the Texas Supreme Court to provide an external review process into the State Bar of Texas, the Board of Disciplinary Appeals and the State Commission on Judicial Conduct with regard to the way my complaints and appeals were handled. I am authorizing the Texas Supreme Court to retrieve all previously submitted complaints and records from the State Bar of Texas, the Board of Disciplinary Council and the State Commission on Judicial Council with regard to the licensed attorneys and justices as listed below:

- 1) Thao Phuong La #D0051245678
- 2) Craig Watkins #D0051245677
- 3) Randa Holloway Black #D0111247030 (state appointed attorney Cause #MI-12-01680)
- 4) Tomi J. Shehan D0111247029 (state appointed attorney Cause #MI-12-01680)
- 5) Jennifer Ann Smith Ellis #D0041245476 and #D0031245141 (state appointed attorney Cause #MI-11-02099)
- 6) Ted William Hejl #D0051245679  Applicant involved in having me committed to mental illness treatment for Cause MI-11-02099
- 7) CJC Nos. 12-0685-SP and 12-0686-CC

Additionally, I have photographs of the physical and verbal assault I suffered from Ted and Kay Hejl on 6/13/11. Per the courts request I can provide the pictures. The pictures were omitted as a result of Dallas County Judicial misconduct who refused to acknowledge the physical and verbal assault and omitted them from evidence despite the fact I provided a statement of Affidavit to the Fifth Court of Appeals in Dallas, TX documenting the physical and verbal assault which was necessary for obtaining approval to appeal under the guidelines of a Restricted Appeal (05-12-00437 CV). Incidentally, the Dallas Police who also exacerbated my victimization as a result of their careless reporting and classification of my police report number #0159075-Y did not report the physical and verbal assault correctly. Per my authorization the Texas Supreme Court has liberty to review the Dallas Police report noted above as well as report number #11-1529070. I'm also authorizing the Texas Supreme Court to review my medical records for the mental illness causes (MI-12-01680 and MI-11-02099).

Sincerely,

Alice Hejl

Re: #D0051245704 Linda Leyva – Roger Haynes

Dear Ms. Leyva:

As Ms. Tubbs tells me you have requested, I have conducted an investigation into the processing of your complaint against Mr. Haynes. In so doing, I have reviewed materials from the file, and spoken with members of the staff who were involved in the processing.

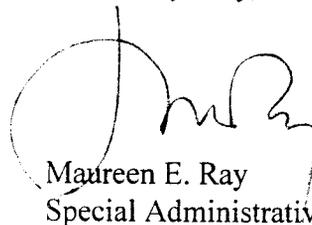

As you know, a panel of the local grievance committee dismissed your complaint on January 14, 2013. It did so because it found insufficient evidence of professional misconduct on which to proceed.

From my review of materials from the file, I can tell you that Mr. Haynes' response and Ms. Vega's affidavit were persuasive that Ms. Vega, at the request of your step-son, did review Mr. Haynes' fees with Ms. Alvarado, but did not state that for a $7,000 fee he would fight harder. The response also provided support for Mr. Haynes' initial reluctance to set a bond reduction hearing, and noted the offense date error on one charge, although the offense number on the police report matched the offense number on the indictment. Given these factors, it is unlikely that an evidentiary panel would have found misconduct.

It appears that these are the factors that resulted in your complaint being dismissed. Because the procedural rules do not provide for an appeal of the panel's decision, and I have found no mechanism by which decisions of this type may be reconsidered, this matter has been closed.

Thank you nonetheless for seeking this review. Please be assured that your voice and concerns have been heard.

Yours very truly,

Re: #D0061246038 Shereen Miller – Robert Jackson

Dear Dr. Miller:

As you requested, I have conducted an investigation into the processing of your complaint against Mr. Jackson. In so doing, I have reviewed materials from the file, and spoken with members of the staff who were involved in the processing of your complaint.

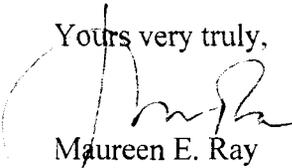

As you know, your complaint was dismissed by a panel of the local grievance committee on November 15 of this year. The panel dismissed because it found insufficient evidence of professional misconduct on which to proceed.

From my review of the file, I can tell you that, given the weight of the evidence, it is highly improbable that an evidentiary panel would find Mr. Jackson had committed misconduct concerning the contested statement to you about his experience. The balance of your complaint seems to involve assertions about mishandling of your legal matter, which, as we discussed, amount to malpractice allegations. The redress for malpractice is found in the civil courts.

Although you may be disappointed in my analysis of your complaint against Mr. Jackson, I have tried my best to give it a thorough review. As I mentioned previously, there is no appeal from decisions of this type of panel and no mechanism for reconsideration. As such, this matter has been closed.

Nonetheless, I appreciate your seeking this information. Please be assured that your voice and concerns have been heard.

Yours very truly,

Dear Maureen Ray,

With reference to our conversation please note the following important information.

Since the Grievance Process began, the Robert's Law Firm has removed their on-line website and all traces of their individual bio-datas including that of their owner.

According to Donna Tipotsch, "an attorney can claim the experience of his Law Firm as his own" [although in my opinion this is not ethical or right as it misleads the potential client into believing their case is in experienced hands] while she added that this was the only reason my grievance was accepted. Could you please inform me as to where and how I can verify this.

It is very important to note that the the owner-Bill Roberts of The Roberts Law Firm [RLF] had passed away on January 2, 2012 leaving behind three inexperienced attorneys of which Mr. Robert Jackson is one of them. Since the owner passed away before Mr. Jackson was hired, how can he still claim this experience as his own? He was hired on the false claims he made.

Secondly and even more importantly, the RLF was established in 1997-fifteen years ago and not 22 years as Jackson claimed. Either way his claims were false. Therefore, what recourse do I have and why did the Grievance Committee fail to take this into consideration?

My last letter dated September 20, 2012 sent to Mr. Kirkland via certified mail summarizes the entire situation with documented evidence. This will be of help to you.

As the Ombudsman you are in a position to intervene when there has been a genuine mistake and I hope you will have the courage to do so for the sake of the truth, justice and concern for your fellow human beings. "Negligence of a lawyer's responsibilities compromises the public interest which it serves." [TDRPC #9].

Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct

In reviewing the 123 page of the Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct [TDRPC] and in particular the Client-Lawyer Relationship, almost every rule that was applicable in my case was violated by Robert Jackson. He violated my legal rights as a US citizen and breached several applicable Rules of Practice as follows:

Rule #1.01:

Although at the time I was not familiar with the Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct nevertheless my letters to Mr. Kirkland itemized numerous violations including lack of competence and diligence. Furthermore, Robert Jackson never once informed me of my legal rights.[TDRPC-#2].

Rule #1.02:

It is needless to repeat that Robert Jackson did not abide with my decision to address the core issues that would have circumvented his attempts in forcing me to submit to the US Government my sensitive financial information due to his failure to act promptly. He chose to take the easiest way out without concern for the unimaginable damage he did to his client [Letter dated Sept.20, 2012].

Rule #1.03:

Here is a typical example of his betrayal of trust, lack of competence and experience. He never informed me of the serious consequences when the IRS got hold of my financial information and within a matter of days placed levies on everything I owned. In fact both he and his assistant assured me repeatedly that this was the safest way to proceed.

Rule #1.05:

Here again, a betrayal of trust by forcing me to submit my financial documents against my will revealing confidential information that could have been avoided through a more effective and diligent approach.

Rule #1.05:

All you have to do is to read his correspondences [detailed in my letter dated September 20, 2012] to determine his conflicting and confused state of mind.

Rule #3.01[2]:

He failed in his duty to use the full benefit of the legal procedure in my case.

Rule #8.04:

Misconduct [Pg. 119] a. (1)&(3). Violation of Rules and Misrepresentation are categorized by the TDRPC as professional misconduct.

His repeated threats of a jail sentence was despicable and is within itself unlawful to say the least.

Was my case submitted to the Evidentiary Panel and if so, how is it even possible that this case could be dismissed in favor of Flobert Jackson?

Yours Sincerely,

Shereen Miller

Re: #D0021245051 Prince Obiefule – Linda Sorrells

Dear Mr. Obiefule:

As you requested, I have conducted an investigation into the processing of your complaint against Ms. Sorrells. In so doing, I have reviewed materials from the file, and spoken with members of the staff who were involved in the processing.

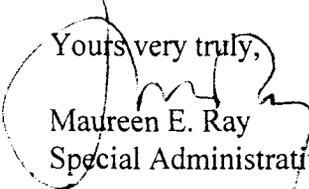

As you know, your complaint was dismissed by a panel of the local grievance committee on December 13 of last year. The panel dismissed because it found insufficient evidence of professional misconduct on which to proceed.

From reviewing materials from the file, I can tell you that Ms. Sorrells' response and the court file are persuasive that Ms. Sorrells pursued the representation of you for an extended period without being fully paid. Regardless of the notation on your $558 check, Ms. Sorrells' response and the court file also lend credence to these monies being intended as attorney's fees. For these reasons, it appears that an evidentiary panel would in all likelihood not find that Ms. Sorrells had committed misconduct in representing you.

As I explained when we spoke, the rules do not provide an appeal from a dismissal of this kind. Nor have I been able to find any mechanism by which a decision of this type may be reconsidered. Accordingly, this matter has been closed.

Thank you nonetheless for seeking this review. Please be assured that your voice and concerns have been heard.

Yours very truly,

Maureen E. Ray

- 11. How would you describe your treatment by whomever you talked with? N/A
- 12. Do you believe the grievance system is fair? YES NO
 - a. If you answered no, why do you think the system is unfair? I didn't get to verbally state my case. written information is often one sided and may need to be explained. It is difficult to show the amt. of distress and aggravation against me in notes/papers submitted.
- 14. Do you have any suggestions for improving the grievance system?
 - Have a rep. call to talk to the person(s) filing the grievance. This may be time consuming and may be used on a "rhone" for obtained from the written info. submitted. We should be then able to explain or answer questions the board has that could help assist in the final decision.
